Executions Continued

LOCKED UP IN THE CITY.

Father Hyacinthe Talks.

FRANCE.

NEWSPAPERS SUPPRESSED.

PARIS, June 2.—The evening newspapers, Tri-color and Politique, have been suppressed.

SEARCHING.

ARRESTS.

Arrests continue upon a large scale, chiefly ex-National Guards and soldiers. A strict watch is kept upon the right bank of the Seine, and sentinels examine all passers at night who cross the ferry.

SCHOLASTIC.

Thiers has ordered the reinstatement of all the teachers in schools.

HOME GUARD.

The gensd'armerie is to be argumented to an effective force of six thousand Republicans. A guard of twelve thousand men is also to be formed.

FORTS.

It is proposed to construct forts within the walls of Paris, to prevent the possibility of a renewal of the insurrection.

THE BOURBON PRINCES.

VERSAILLES, June 3.—It is said that a majority of the Assembly favor the proposition for the abrogation of the banishment of the Princes of Bourbon, and also proposed to extend the power of Thiers as chief executive for two years.

RESUMED BUSINESS.

The railways between this city and Paris have resumed business, and are already doing an immense passenger traffic. Business is rapidly reviving.

M'MAHON'S ORDER.

PARIS, June 3.—The order of the day issued by McMahon to the marines and soldiers of his armies, praises the courage and devotion which has delivered Paris out of the hands of the wretches who intended to reduce the city to ashes, and says that the Assembly is about to give them the worthiest recompense by unanimously voting that they have deserved well of their country.

REOPENED.

The streets have been reopened to traffic. The barricades have all disappeared, pavements repaired, and there is perfect order everywhere, and the police are still arresting all suspected persons.

COURT MARTIALS.

The ten courts martials have been established at Cherbourg for the trial of all prisoners sent there by the Provost Marshal. The latter service is carried on at Theatre Du Chatelot, in this city, where a summary investigation is held prior to the trial by the military court.

AUTHORIZED TO RE-OPEN.

PARIS, June 3.—The theaters have been authorized to re-open, but the cafes and chantants are still under restrictions.

DONATION.

The Versailles Assembly has voted 1,053,000 francs for the purpose of re-building the house of Thiers.

NOT ALLOWED TO LEAVE.

PARIS, June 4.—No one is allowed to leave the city after nine o'clock in the evening, from which hour all the gates are closed and cavalry patrol the streets and suburbs until morning.

COMPULSORY SERVICE.

The commission appointed for the reorganization of the army has decided in favor of compulsory service of all Frenchmen, against the advice of President Thiers, who recommended the restoration of the law of 1832.

STRANGERS.

Many strangers, including numbers of Englishmen, have arrived in Paris, are arrivals of foreigners are increasing daily.

DANGEROUS MEN.

The Figaro estimates the number of men who bore arms in the late insurrection, and who have not yet been identified or arrested, at fifty thousand. The police are in constant danger from violence at their hands. Grousset was arrested to-day in Paris. Active search is being made for Pyat, who is believed to be concealed in the city.

CONFIRMED.

The report that a motion will be made in the Assembly to prolong Thiers' power is confirmed.

ARRIVED.

PARIS, June 4, Evening.—The Duke d'Aumaile has arrived at St. Germaine.

EXECUTIONS.

Executions at Versailles are still numerous.

THE PRINCES.

All the Paris journals are discussing what shall be done with the Orleans Princes. Some appeal to their patriotism and ask them to resign their seats in the Assembly.

THE FUTURE.

M. Girardin, in the Liberale demands the establishment of a liberal Republic after the model of the United States or Switzerland.

FATHER HYACINTHE.

PARIS, June 4.—A letter from Father Hyacinthe in the Gaulois acknowledges the sympathy Italy feels for France, and advises the union of the Latin races, as the balance of Europe is menaced by the preponderance of the Germans. The acts of the Commune were the result of the negation of God by the people. The nineteenth century is the age of workingmen. The second Empire treated social questions in the spirit of the Ceasars instead of seeking to solve them by the dissemination of education. It moreover imposed a prolonged celibacy on soldiers and legalized the prostitution of women. The church also failed in its mission questions and did too little for the instruction of its flock. Father Hyacinthe concludes: "Paris is in ashes. Working people have no God, or say it is impossible for them to believe in or love Him. Let rulers with whole heart and brain consider the problem and labor for the restoration of France to faith, prosperity and peace.'

ARCHBISHOP TO BE BURIED.

VERSAILLES, June 3.—Archbishop Dorboy will be buried on Wednesday. On that day the Assembly will suspend its session. The insurgent who commanded the shooting of the Archbishop has been discovered through his own boasting.

ENGLISH CITIES TO BE BURNED.

Another notable insurgent boasts that the burning of Paris will be considered insignificant when the London docks, with all their wealth, are consumed, as a good lesson to the middle classes of Europe. London, Liverpool and Bristol will, it is said, be the next scenes of secret operations. Papers have been discovered which show that the operations of the Communists were directed from London.

RESUMED OPERATIONS.

LONDON, June 3.—The railroad lines between Paris and Havre have resumed operations.

EVACUATED.

ENGLAND.

STEAMSHIP DISABLED.

LONDON, June 3.—The Royal mail steamship Ella, bound to the West Indies and Aspinwall, has returned to Southampton in a disabled condition. Her passengers and mails have been transferred to another vessel of the line, which has sailed for Aspinwall.

ARRIVED IN LIVERPOOL.

LONDON, June 3.—Minister Schenck, with Earl De Gray, Lord Tenterden and Sir Stafford Northcote, arrived in Liverpool to-day and was presented with addresses of welcome by the Chamber of Commerce of that city, to which was made responses. Minister Schenck will reach here to-morrow.

EMPEROR OF BRAZIL.

The Emperor of Brazil is expected at Southampton on the 15th. The Common Council are preparing an address of welcome.

PRUSSIA.

SENTENCES TO BE EXECUTED.

BERLIN, June 3.—It has been ascertained that the chiefs of the International Club and several Englishmen were among the insurgents. Theirs promises that whatever sentence is imposed upon Assy and Rochefort will be faithfully executed. An order signed and sealed by the Commune to burn the Hotel de Ville has been discovered.

DECIDED.

The Emperor William has decided the San Juan question in favor of the United States.

READ THREE TIMES.

BERLIN, June 3.—The bill incorporating Alsace with the German Empire has been read three times before the German Parliament.

BELGIUM.

DIPLOMATIC.

BRUSSELS, June 4.—The Independence Belge says that diplomatic relations between France and Germany will shortly be resumed. It is probable that the Marquis de Galeriace will be the French Charge D'Affairs at Berlin and Count Von Hatzfield will be the German representative at Versailles.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, June 4.—The Lower Chamber has approved an increase of import dulies on wheat and flour.

NEW YORK.

The President Interviewed—Foster Appealing—Political—The City Debt—Justifiable Homicide—The Book Concern—Explosion—Secretary Fish—Fallacious—Financial.

NEW YORK, June 3, 1871.

POLITICAL.

The Tribune's Washington special says: The Wisconsin friends of Ex-Member C. C. Washburne, in this city, are putting his name prominently forward as a candidate for the Governorship of Wisconsin. No fault is found with able and popular Governor Fairchild, who is now serving his third term, but Mr. Washburne's friends claim to have information that Gov. Fairchild will not be a candidate for renomination.

THE CITY DEBT.

The project to have the consolidated debt of the city taken up by foreign bankers has been under consideration for some years among New York officials. The plan appears to be on the eve of consummation. The Frankfort branch of that house of Rothschilds has proposed to take this debt, taking the securities issued and pay the old loans as they fall due.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund were considering the proposition yesterday, but no important decision was reached. Commissioner Connolly says the arrangement will be consummated if the Rothschild's will agree to the proper terms, as he thinks they will. If it is done at all it will be six per cent. gold bonds to run about twenty-five years.

THE PRESIDENT INTERVIEWED.

A reporter of a morning paper yesterday interviewed President Grant at Long Branch. The President said there is a good deal of misapprehension on both sides of the water concerning the Treaty of Washington. It is thought by many that it was rushed through and acted upon without proper consideration on the part of both governments. The facts are that every article of the Treaty was submitted to me after it was adopted by the Commission and approved by me, and that each article was in the same way submitted to the British Cabinet and approved by the Ministers of the Crown at once. The English Commissioners spent a great deal of money telegraphing the sections of the Treaty. The Queen of England pledged her signature beforehand, I therefore regard the Treaty as practically ratified. There will be pecuniary considerations of course, and measures will have to be adopted on both sides of the water to carry out the provisions of the Treaty. Our House of Representatives will, I feel certain, act wisely in the matter, for the Treaty must be ratified and made a law of both nations. It is necessary. The necessity is immediate as far as we are concerned. We would like to have better terms, but there were two parties to the bargain. If I had it all my own way, I think I could make it more favorable to us. The point aimed at was not merely pecuniary satisfaction for war losses by the Alabama and other cruisers from British ports, but a settlement of the irritating and distressing questions likely any day to bring the two nations into armed conflicts. My aim was by this Treaty to secure peace through justice, and I believe I have succeeded. No apprehension need be felt as to the course of the British people. I would regard it as an act of bad faith on their part to reject the treaty after its almost unanimous acceptance by our Senate. The English must surely prefer a fair settlement of our differences with them, for which this treaty provides, than to nurse a cause for war. Settlement or war were the alternatives. The final ratification will be a blessing to both countries.

In regard to the reports of Mr. Fish leaving the Cabinet, the President said: Mr. Fish will not leave the Cabinet nor resign the seals of the State Department with my consent while I am President. He has been faithful, patriotic and diligent. I should be grieved if he resigned, but he wont resign.

Now as to Cuba. There has been no discussion in the Cabinet in reference to Cuban affairs of late. The policy of the administration is unchanged in regard to Cuba. We are mindful of our obligations to friendly nations, while careful of our rights. The United States will not be unjust while I am President. We will do as we would be done by. The condition of affairs in Cuba does not seem to me or to Mr. Fish to demand action on our part. Time heals more wounds than medicine and patience is a very good specific.

FINANCIAL.

The Times' financial article this morning says the slight advance is now attributed to a recently formed combination of brokers to put the price up by bold purchases in the Gold Room, not only for cash, but on contracts with short sellers who are not believers in higher gold or in a scarce supply of exchange. Of course the movement must turn on the next named point. At present the export demand for gold reflects no urgent scarcity of bills on London, although the settlements for the account of importers through the summer months are admitted to be large. On the other hand, the negotiations in England and on the continent of American bonds of various descriptions are to be almost immediately drawn against, so as to qualify the summer deficiency of the ordinary exports as against the settlements referred to.

SECRETARY FISH.

The Herald's correspondent has been interviewing Secretary Fish, and reports that Mr. Fish said last evening: "I did not present my resignation on Saturday, and it was not accepted on Monday, and I have not resigned at all." Furthermore, Mr. Fish observed that he had no intention now of retiring from the State Department. There seems to be little doubt, however, that Mr. Fish would willingly change his place as Secretary of State for that of Minister to England, and there is good ground for prophecy that the return of General Schenck before the present year is ended will afford Mr. Fish the opportunity he desires so much, to mingle in diplomatic and social intercourse with the aristocracy of England. Mr. Fish left Washington last evening for New York, and will be absent for about a week.

THE BOOK CONCERN.

Dr. Carlton this morning publishes a card in which he says that inasmuch as certain affidavits have not yet been presented to the courts by John Lanahan, and others appeared in the papers making damaging allegations against the financial management of the Methodist Book Concern, it is proper for him to say that an answer fully meeting and refuting such allegations, is in course of preparation, which will be made public soon. As it is, if submitted to the courts, an action for publication, he adds, would be obviously improper.

FOSTER APPEALING.

Foster publishes an appeal to the public asking that they consider his case dispassionately, and says he is confident some feelings, which on impulse secured his conviction, will when cool and deliberate, do even him the proper justice, and that he is doomed to die because of a wicked freak resulting in the death of a man whom I no more intended to harm seriously than I would my own child.

EXPLOSION.

Yesterday afternoon the flue of the furnace fell on the steam supply pipe, in Wm. Woodward's machine shop, at 513 to 519 West Twenty-fifth street, and a terrific explosion followed. The supply pipe burst and spread the fire in every direction, and almost instantly the flames burst out in several places. The property damaged amounts to about $20,000. Insured.

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE.

The Coroner's jury yesterday, in the case of Mrs. Maria Devine, held for the killing of her husband, Bernard Devine, returned a verdict of justifiable homicide. The prisoner was discharged from custody.

FALLACIOUS.

The statement that General Sickles has been instructed to make demands of Spain such as have been represented, is characterized as being fallacious.

NEW YORK, June 4, 1871.

RAILROAD STRIKE.

The Erie Railroad sent a force of three or four hundred laborers and fighting men from this city to Hornersville and other points along the Susquehanna division of its road yesterday, to take the places of the striking brakemen and prevent their interference with trains and business. Several cars of a through freight train, leaving Hornersville for Buffalo Friday afternoon, were uncoupled on the grade west of the former place, and were allowed to run back. Three of them, loaded with molasses, were run off the track and are being totally demolished. After this demonstration all the freight trains on the road were stopped until further orders, to prevent the assembling and organization of the strikers. The brakemen demand an advance of pay from $1.88 to $2 per day.

A STATUE OF GEN. SCOTT.

A plaster cast equestrian statue of General Winfield Scott has just been completed by Henry K. Browne, a Newbury sculptor, and will be removed to Philadelphia in a few days, where the statue will be cast in the bronze of cannon captured by General Scott in Mexico. President Grant will visit the statue this week.

ROWDY POLICEMAN.

This afternoon John Gillespie, a policeman, while intoxicated assaulted Isaac Watson and Albert Crowell, beating them severely. Policeman Wm. Leroy tried to arrest Gillespie, when the latter drew a revolver and wounded Leroy three times in the left thigh. Gillespie was afterwards arrested.

FIRE INSURANCE.

The outstanding risks of the late Commonwealth Fire Insurance Company of this city have been insured by the Occidental Insurance Company of San Francisco, California, for $9,000,000, the latter assuming all losses subsequent to May 2d.

HONOR.

SAILED.

Fechter and Miss LeClercq sailed for Europe yesterday.

CINCINNATI.

Reported Steamboat Accident.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—A special to the Times and Chronicle, from Louisville, says it is reported there that the steamer Leonidas had sunk last night below Evansville, bound from New Orleans to Cincinnati. Dispatches, however, from Evansville state that she passed there at eight o'clock last evening, so that the accident must have occurred, if at all, above Evansville. The report must be received with many grains of allowance.

POLITICAL DISCUSSION.

Governor Leslie and General Harlan, candidates for Governor in Kentucky, held their first regular discussion in Vanceburg on Thursday. This is the first of a series of twenty joint meetings to be held in various points in Kentucky. The speeches were largely devoted to matters of State policy.

SENTENCED.

James Royne, convicted of shooting N. S. Parmalee with intent to kill, at Youngstown, Ohio, was yesterday sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years.

MURDERED.

Mike Glenn was killed by a young man named Bell in Guthrie, Kentucky, last night. Bell is represented as a quiet man, and was followed during the evening by Glenn, who at last drew a knife and attacked Bell. The latter thereupon drew a pistol and shot his pursuer dead.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Latest from Alaska.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The schooner Mary L. Taylor arrived from Sitka to-day, assigned to the United States Marshal here, her Captain having been arrested, charged with being engaged in contraband trade. Her owners claim that she was engaged in a legitimate trade in establishing a post on the main land of Alaska, north of Sitke.

General Miller, Collector of Customs, of this city, and associates, hold a monopoly of the seal killing, and trade under a concession from the Government, and owners assert that the United States authorities are being made use of to break up all opposition to Hutchinson, Kohler & Co., and ruin everybody endeavoring to do business in the territory of Alaska. They will carry the case to Washington.

THE FAIR-CRITTENDEN CASE.

The defense in Mrs. Fair's case introduced affidavits to-day to impeach another of the jurors named Littlefield. Judge Devenville said he would hear these affidavits, but affidavits matter must then stop, as is evident that perjury was being committed.

At the conclusion of the argument of counsel for Mrs. Fair, on a motion for a new trial this evening, Judge Diveville informed Mr. Campbell, counsel for the people, that it was unnecessary for him to reply, as the attempt to impeach the jurors had failed and he would overrule the exceptions taken during the trial. He then briefly alluded to the crime and impartial trial she had, and sentenced Laura D. Fair to be hanged on the 28th of July. A remarkable scene then ensued. Mrs. Fair maintained almost her usual composure but the strong minded women who attended, manifested their sympathy in a most ostentatious manner. Mrs. Emily Pitts Stearns, leader of the party, embraced the prisoner's mother and then went over to the reporters' desk, telling them she hoped they were satisfied now, etc. These manifestations continued until court was cleared. It is believed Governor Hayt will not interfere.

WHEAT CROP.

The incoming wheat crop is now estimated one-third higher than it was two weeks since. The leading operators to-day estimate the surplus for exportation will reach one hundred and fifty thousand tons. Some think it will not fall much short of the crop last year.

HARVARD REGATTA.

The annual Harvard College regatta took place over two miles of the Charles river course to-day. The first race was between the second crews of the junior, sophomore and freshmen classes, the former taking the inside position. The sophomores crossed and fouled the freshmen soon after starting, and the juniors fouled the sophomores in turning the stake, breaking the second oar of the latter. The sophomores won the race, notwithstanding the accident, in fourteen minutes and fifty-five seconds; juniors' time fifteen minutes and ten seconds, and freshmen fifteen minutes and twenty seconds. Owing to the mixed claims of foul, the referee reserved his decision. The first freshman class went over the course for the Beacon cup, their junior competitors not appearing.

BASE BALL.

In the game of base ball to-night between the White Stockings and Harvards the former were victorious by a score of 12 to 2.

ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—The late condemned ordnance and ordnance stores at the United States Arsenal here has been suspended on account of the bids not reaching the scheduled value of the property. The Laborers' Strike.

BIGAMOUS BOWEN.

WASHINGTON, June 3, 1871.

PAYING THE COMMISSION.

It has been currently reported that the American members of the Joint High Commission have received no pay for their services. This is not true. An appropriation of $25,000 was made for this purpose during the short session of Congress, and all the expenses attending the Commission have been settled.

RATIFYING.

The news of the ratification of the treaty by Great Britain is expected here within a week or two. The treaty does not become law, however, until ratifications have been formerly exchanged, and is open to amendments by either nation until this is done.

TREASURY MATTERS.

Numerous telegrams have been received at the Treasury Department from banking houses in different parts of the country, asking why they have not received returns for bonds sent to the Register of the Treasury for transfer. The unusual delay is caused by the heavy transfer, amounting to about three millions of dollars, received on the day before the transfer books were closed. It is the custom of the Register to make returns on the day the bonds are received, but on the day named the amount was so great that this was impossible.

THE WEATHER.

The Barometer remains high on the Pacific coast with brisk westerly winds and fair weather. Heavy rains with fresh Easternly winds have prevailed on the Gulf coast and cloudy weather has extended to North Carolina and Tennessee. The Barometer has fallen decidedly in Louisana as also on the East Atlantic coast. The highest pressure is found in North Carolina. The pressure has risen at Key West with diminishing South East winds. Clear and partially cloudy weather have been very generally reported from the Ohio Valley, but light local rains are now falling at several points. The threatning weather with light rains on Friday in Indiana has apparently moved into Ohio and eastward. Fresh southerny winds have prevail ed on the Atlantic coast and light in the Interior.

Probabilities.—It is probable that rain will cease by Sunday morning in Florida but continue in Louisiana and Texas and extends northwards to Tennessee. Cloudy and threatning weather will probably be experienced Friday in the Ohio Valley and on Lakes Michigan and Erie and to some extent in the Eastern States.

LIBEL SUIT.

The suit of Wm. G. Finney, clerk in the third Auditor's office, against Wm. J. Murtagh, publisher of the National Republican, and C. K. Hanes, formerly managing editor of the paper, was concluded to-day. The newspaper article complained of affected the plaintiffs moral character, calling him a whited sepulchre, and speaking of him as disreputably connected with Mrs. Keeling, formerly employed as a clerk in the same office with him. He laid damages at 10,000 dollars against each of the defendants, but a verdict was returned in their favor.

BOWEN.

The trial of C. C. Bowen for bigamy was resumed to-day and concluded late this afternoon. The jury, after being out twenty minutes, returned a verdict of "Guilty." Bowen and Mrs. Pettigrew and King Bowen were, during the argument of Bowen's counsel, affected to tears, and when the Court adjourned the lady followed Bowen to the Judge's room, resting her head on his shoulder evidently in distress. His counsel moved for a new trial, which will be heard on Thursday. Meanwhile he is held on $5,000 bail.

LABORERS' STRIKE.

The laborers' strike ended to-day. There was a conference with the contractors, some of whom agreed to pay two dollars per day at once, and others will pay that sum on new contracts. The different districts are to send delegates to a convention on Thursday to form a labor union.

RUSTICATING.

Mr. Freilhardt, the French Minister, with his family, is at his country residence in Maryland. He will soon proceed to Massachusetts, but will not return to France for several months. M. De Bellonnet will continue to act as Charge d' Affairs until the appointment of Freilhardt's successor.

DARIEN CANAL TREATY.

The Darien Canal treaty was not acted on at the late session of the Senate, for the reason that it was not sufficiently explicit in its terms, and the Committee on Foreign Relations is desirous of learning officially the result of the Tehuantepec survey before coming to a conclusion on the inter-oceanic communications.

WASHINGTON, June 4, 1871.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis for the past 24 hours: On the Pacific coast the barometer has fallen slightly, with an increased temperature and clear weather. The barometer has risen somewhat at the Rocky Mountain stations, with clear weather. It is nearly stationary on the gulf coast east of Texas, but has fallen somewhat on the Atlantic, and risen slightly northwest of Illinois. The temperature has risen on the gulf and northwest of the Ohio Valley. It has fallen from Pennsylvania to Florida. Fresh southeasterly winds have prevailed on the gulf coast. The storm on the gulf has been severely felt in Louisiana and Texas, and rainy and threatening weather has been reported from South Carolina westward. The clear weather of Saturday night in the interior is this evening followed by threatening weather and local rains from Virginia and Lake Erie to Mississippi.

Probabilities—It is probable the Texas storm will pass northwestward. A severe storm is threatening in northern Illinois. Local thunder storms will probably continue from Kentucky to New York, and be experienced in the Eastern States. Light winds are probable in general for the lakes on Monday.

APPOINTED.

The President has appointed George W. Curtiss, of New York, Joseph Medell, of Chicago, Alexander G. Cattell, of New Jersey, Dawson A. Walker, of Pennsylvania, E. B. Elliott, of the Treasury Department, and Joseph H. Blackfou, of the Postoffice Department, to carry out the object of that clause in the Appropriation bill passed March 3d, 1871, authorizing the President to prescribe such rules and regulations for the admission of persons into the civil service of the United States as will best promote the efficiency thereof and ascertain the fitness of each candidate in respect to age, health, character, knowledge and ability for the service into which he seeks to enter. The Board will convene on the 28th inst., at the Interior Department.

LOUISVILLE.

Found Dead.

LOUISVILLE, June 4.—Last Thursday night Peter Garvey, a watchman on the line of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, was found dead on his watch box near Colesburg, thirty-four miles from this city, with an ugly hole in his breast, evidently from a slug fired from a gun or pistol. A negro was arrested on suspicion, but was afterward released. As yet, the authorities have no clue to the murderer.

CANADA.

Business.

MONTREAL, June 3.—Returns show that one firm of Montreal ship owners in the first twenty-three working days after the opening of navigation, had twenty-one sea going ships, each carrying over 1,000 tons of cargo, arrived, discharged, load and departed. Of these vessels none were steamers.

CHICAGO.

Railroad Contract Closed.

CHICAGO, June 3.—The Executive Committee of the Plymouth, Kankakoe and Pacific Railroad Company closed a contract yesterday with Messrs. Hawkins, Hillard & Co., of this city, for the grading, bridging and ties for fifty-five and a-half miles of the east end of the road, extending from Plymouth, Indiana, to within ten miles of the Illinois State line. This ten miles General Cass, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, has agreed to build, and will be on the ground next week to make arrangements for the same. The entire roadbed is to be completed, and ties delivered ready for laying the iron. The work will commence at once, and will be pushed as fast as men and money can do it. Over seventy miles of this road is already graded, and much of the masonry done. A heavy force is at work on the west end in Putman and Bureau counties.

THE CHENY CASE.

Rev. M. Cheny, has received a letter signed by a large number of Episcopal clergymen and laymen in various parts of the United States, assuring him of their undiminished affection and respect. They say they believe that the determination to teach nothing but that which you shall be persuaded may be concluded and approved by scripture, while faithfully adhering to the creeds and articles of faith established by the church, is consistent with truth to the Church, and is demanded by the vows of ordination and when leading to such action as that with which you have been charged. Accordingly we maintain your right to such decision and action as that for which you have been punished by an ecclesiastical right which many others of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church experience a similar difficulty, have habitually exercised. We feel that it would indeed be a sad day for the Protestant Episcopal Church if it should authoritatively declare that a verbal deviation from its proscription on the part of those who are true to its formula of faith is to be tolerated under any stress of conscience or circumstances of expediency whatsoever. Among the signers of the letter are Stephen Tyng, Jr.; John Cotton Smith, Wm. J. Sabine, New York; Herman Dyer, Secretary Evangelical Knowledge Society; R. C. Mattock, Secretary Evangelical Education Society; Charles W. Quick, Editor Episcopal; John Stone, Professor Theological Seminary, Massachusetts; J. J. McEcheny, Sherlock A. Bronson, A. Blake and Morris A. Tyng, Professors Theological Seminary, Ohio. The total number of clerical signers is sixty-three. Among the laymen are the Hon. Columbus Poland, Washington; Jay Cooke, Philadelphia; Stewart Brown New York; Ex-Governors Olden and Remington, of New Jersey.

Rev. Stephen H. Tyng of New York officiates for Mr. Cheney to-morrow. It is said there are members of Mr. Cheney's congregation who disapprove of his conducting church service, and if he continues steps will be taken in civil courts. It is also stated that Bishop White will take some legal action to continue Christ Church in the Episcopal diocese and compel Mr. Cheney to abandon its pulpit. The value of the property is $90,000. In the event of the Bishop obtaining possession of Christ Church property, and thus assuming control of its pulpit, Mr. Cheney will, it is understood, preach in this city independently of any church organization. He has been offered the use of many eastern pulpits.

NOT DEAD.

J. A. Sawtelle, the actor who was reported drowned at Keokuk, has turned up at Columbus city, Iowa, alive and well.

VENEZUELA

Repulsed.

CARRACAS, VENEZUELA, May 23.—The Revolutionists army at Herrera has been repulsed and Blanco's army is advancing on Valencia. Blanco has arrived at Puerto Cobello to assume the command on the field in person against Herrera. Revolutionists are strong and it is reported Solazar with a thousand men has joined Herrera. Palida is acting President in Blanco's absence.

FORCIBLE.

The Venezuelans were forcibly taken from the German steamer Bavaria. Among the Venezuelan Generals were Seapote and Larosa, who were passengers, and they are now imprisoned on shore. The captain of the steamer and the German representative protested unsuccessfully. The Venezuelians excuse the seizure on the plea that the Generals were seized for criminal acts and not political offences alone. The matter remains unsettled.

ROCHESTER.

Runaway.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 4.—A team of horses belonging to Henry Bartholomew (brewer) ran away last night about ten o'clock, resulting in killing Miss Amada Hawley and injuring severely Henry Hawley and Mary Green. The driver of the wagon was thrown to the pavement and it is reported he died this P. M. from the effects of his injuries.

ST. THOMAS.

NEW FOUNDLAND.

To be Repaired.

HEARTS CONTENT, June 3.—One of the Angle American Telegraph Cables has been recovered and repaired. The steamer Scundria, Capt. Halpine, will proceed to recover and repair the other.

A New Railroad.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., June 3.—Ground was broken to-day in this place for the Pennsylvania and Sodus Bay Railroad, which will connect the coal fields of Pennsylvania with Lake Ontaria. Three thousand persons were present and great euthusiasm prevailed. The whole line will be completed within three months.

A Mail from New Scotland.

The Halifax, Nova Scotia, Chronicle says: That it has warned the people of Nova Scotia, from time to time, that our fisheries were to be given up to the Americans, in settlement of the Alabama claims by the Commissioners now sitting at Washington. Our warnings have been verified. We publish in another column the four articles of the protocol which has been agreed upon for their surrender. The Commissioners have made a feint to avert the storm of indignation which the announcement will raise in this province, by falsely pretending to give our fishermen reciprocal privileges on the American coast, north of latitude 39. The concession was made with intent to deceive, but will deceive no one. The American fisheries north of thirty-nine are valueless; they would not pay for the supplies of a single fishing craft; they have been abandoned by Americans themselves for the last twenty years. The third article of the protocol, which agrees that a certain sum of money, to be fixed by arbitration, shall be paid to the party most benefitted by the exchange, amounts simply to this: Our fisheries are to be purchased by the Americans for a settled price, to be determined upon by three arbitrators. It is a contemptible subterfuge, which will only excite a still more angry feeling. The money would be paid to Canada and we should never see one penny of it; but Nova Scotia will not submit to sell her fisheries at any price. It is a fatal and outrageous injury attempted to be done to us. Our fishermen now find it hard work to live; they will be reduced to beggary if the Americans are allowed to come in and drive them out of their own waters."

Cheap Postage.

Mr. Seeley, M. P., is proposing a penny post between England and the United States. This would be a half penny less than the internal postage in the latter country, and if the system were adopted a letter might be sent from New Orleans to Liverpool for less than is demanded for its transmission from New York to Brooklyn. But, then, letters are carried from Portland to San Francisco, across the continent, for the same rate as across the East River. Mr. Seeley's proposition is not simply to reduce the ocean transit to a penny, leaving the island postage at both ends to be added, for the whole rate is now actually less than this would be; but to secure the sending of a letter from any part of Great Britain to any part of the United States for one penny, or two cents.

THE Boston Traveller, which is usually accurate in such statistics, says that in that city on Tuesday afternoon, between two and three o'clock, the thermometer rose to 93 degrees! which was at least four degrees higher than it had been in May for fifteen years, and half a degree higher than the highest degree reached last summer—hot as last summer confessedly was.

Growth of the South.

The confidence which investors are manifesting in railway securities in the south shows that prosperity has at last set toward one of the most productive portions of our land.

The guarantee of the State of Alabama, whose credit is of the very highest order, is readily given to strengthen the bonds of her projected railways. This is likewise true of many other Southern States. Among them all the Selma and Gulf R. R. stands pre-eminent.

It runs from Selma to Pensacola, the former a railway centre in the richest agricultural district in Alabama, and the latter the very best, and in fact the only harbor of any value on the gulf.

Chicago is directly north of Pensacola, much nearer than it is to New York. This tells the whole story of the value of this line. Chicago, Nashville, Selma and Pensacola are in one line, and the completion of the link from Selma to Pensacola leaves but a small portion of an air line from the best harbor in the gulf to Chicago yet to complete. This road has also the control of the through traffic for New York, and all coast cities Southward to New Orleans. It competes with the Mississippi river for all the trade of the valley of the Mississippi. Cotton is still king. It is estimated that of 2,000,000 bales of cotton raised within reach of this road over one half must go over this road. What this item will produce is not difficult to see.

Besides this, only forty miles north of Selma lies the great coal and iron mines of Alabama, owned now in great part by the coal and iron interest of Penn'a. All this great field of mineral wealth is about to be opened by the completion of this road, more than half of the one hundred and forty miles necessary to connect the two cities of Selma and Pensacola being completed. As a coaling station, Pensacola needs this road, and unquestionably this item alone will build up this road to a first class security. Iron, coal, cotton, and the corn and other products of the South are quite enough to place traffic upon the Selma and Gulf Railroad at the front rank as a railway.

Alabama has shown her confidence in this railroad by guaranteeing principal and interest in the bonds, in such a way that an investor has practically an Alabama State bond and a Railway bond in one. Ninety-five and interest is the price at 8 per cent., gold, and all the banks of this vicinity have them.

Baggage Smashing as a Fine Art.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin says: Baggage smashing as a fine art, has reached a high state of perfection in this country, and the skill, ingenuity, and perseverance exhibited by railway porters and employees, in reducing the strongest built trunk to a hash of wood, leather, and iron, must be highly encouraging to the trunk makers. New York and the West produce some human bomb shells, who stand at the head of the destructive brotherhood for the annihilation of baggage. A heavily timbered, iron clad, armor plated trunk, will only stand a two days' trip and the handling of two or three of these railroad wreckers before it is reduced to old junk. On a recent trip we put our faith and our clothing in a heavy sole leather valise, handsomely built; it held together as far as Washington, and we began to believe that some great reform movement or "revival" had taken place among porters and railroad men; that some railroad Father Mathew, or hotel Elder Knapp, had arisen, and that the debased baggage smasher had signed a pledge to abstain from destroying even so much as a band-box, or had experienced a change of heart, and with it more tender hands. It was with a hopeful spirit, therefore, that we unsuspectingly parted with our trusty portmanteau at the depot in Washington. Alas! for the fallibility of human hopes; that elegant piece of leather was delivered to us in New York, at the end of the days journey, neatly manufactured into leather shoe strings. A stout, leather covered flask of cologne had been well pulverized, and the fragments of the glass judiciously distributed in our linen, where it was calculated to excite the most lively emotion. A bunch of cigars had been converted into snuff and fine cut; in fact, the remains of everything of a perishable nature attested the muscular energy and activity of the American baggage smasher.

As the traveling season is approaching we would suggest to any new railway company, and advertise themselves in the most thorough manner, that they announce that they will guarantee the safe delivery of baggage, except in cases of the usual railroad accidents for which "nobody is to blame." Such a guarantee, faithfully carried out, would largely increase the business of any railway, and cause them to become known throughout the civilized world as the benefactors of mankind.

The Chiltern Hundreds.

The N. Y. World says: Lord Walsingham is now on a tour in this country. Having in January succeeded to his title and estates under very melancholy circumstances, he determined to spend a year or two on the American continent in pursuit of a favorite study—natural history—and to assist him in this object is accompanied by two men of science. Lord Walsingham's family name is De Gray. The Walsingham peerage was won, as has been the case with half the honors in England, by a cadet of the house, who, going out of the old home in Norfolk (which the De Greys have had since the Contest) to make his way in the world, achieved high rank at the bar, and ultimately a peerage, and the elder branch of his family falling, the younger, which had been ennobled, succeeded to the family estates. Just before he left England Lord Walsingham succeeded, in right of his mother, to one of the most interesting places in the country—Chequers Court, in Buckinghamshire. This beautiful old seat is situated on the Chiltern Hills—(in the midst of the celebrated "Chiltern hundreds." These are the hundreds of Burnham, Desborough and Stoke, which comprise the greatest part of the Chiltern Hills. The stewardship of these hundreds (to which there is annexed an annual salary of $5, with all the fees,) is the gift of the Crown, and has had perhaps more possessors than any other throughout the kingdom. By the Constitution, no member can resign his seat; but as the law declares that every member accepting a place from the Crown must vacate his seat, the stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds, or that of the Manor of Hempholme, is bestowed on whoever is desirous of retiring from Parliament. The office is immediately resigned when the object has been attained)—in a district which, although not remote from London, is so secluded that long after railways came into use it seemed to lay quite out of the world. Chequers Court at one time belonged to a son-in-law of Oliver Cromwell, and contains more interesting relics of that famous personage than any house in England. It and its neighborhood will repay the trouble of a visit from an American tourist, who will find within reach of it Great Hampden, where John Hampden was born and bred, and which still belongs to his representative, Lady Vere Cameron.

Baroness Burdett-Coutts.

Miss Burdett-Coutts, on accepting the offer of a Peerage, elected to be known as the Baroness Burdett-Coutts—whereupon the London Daily News observes:

A graceful compliment has been paid to a lady who, for a considerable number of years, has played a munificent part in innumerable works of charity and philanthropy. In the elevation of Miss Burdett-Coutts to the Peerage, it is hard to say whether she or the Peerage receives the more honor. Her generous and indefatigable labors in all that concerns the welfare of the poorer classes of the community, have not only done an immense deal of good in themselves, but have set an example which a large number of other ladies have been proud to follow. Miss Burdett-Coutts, it is true, has made beneficence the business rather than the amusement of her life, and has devoted toward the numerous schemes and projects which have won her support, sums which represent in the aggregate a fortune. Her many friends and the innumerable recipients of her bounty will not be sorry to learn that, as a Peeress, she will still wear the name which has been associated with so many charitable works. Baroness Burdett-Coutts is a title which, we confess, has an odd sound about it; but it retains the link between its wearer and the history of our recent social improvements in which her name has been frequently inscribed. Doubtless, too, the new title will be associated with further developments of that charitable mission to which Miss Burdett-Coutts has devoted her life.

The Mecklenburg Declaration.—A Curious bit of American History.

The most memorable thing in connection with the history of Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, is the "Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence," which was adopted May 20, 1775, in an old, round log and clapboard-covered school house, used as a court room, amid most enthusiastic shouts. Attached to this document, writes a recent correspondent, are the names of seven Alexanders, many of whose grandchildren and great grandchildren still reside there. This was the first public action taken which looked to a complete separation of the colonies from Great Britain, and the establishment of American Independence. The paper was taken to Philadelphia by Captain Jack and placed in the hands of John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, to be presented to the Colonial Congress; but these gentlemen replied that it was too soon for such a movement. This was more than one year before Mr. Jefferson wrote the "Declaration" adopted on the 4th of July, 1776. The agreement in sentiment, and the similarity of a number of passages, prove that Mr. Jefferson had not read and studied the "Mecklenburg Declaration" in vain.

A California Joke.

The "Occasional Notes" column of Mr. Beecher's Christian Union has this bit:

"Mary's Little Lamb" and the venerable editor of the New York Tribune are both regarded as fair subjects for the witlings of the land to flesh their maiden pens upon; though, certainly, both are worthy of better treatment than to be thus tormented. The latest instance, taken from a heaven-forsaken corner of a far-away California paper, is calculated to arouse the sternest resistance in our nobler nature. It is as follows:

"Mary had a little lamb,
It drank cold water freely,
And looked so innocently wise,
She called it Horace Greeley."

LOUISVILLE
CEMENT.
The Best--The Cheapest.
The Cement has acquired the reputation as the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.
It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.
The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it in the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.
The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.
At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundation of every good house should be laid in this Cement.
A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GREAT

New Five Per Cent. Bonds of the United States.

The Treasury Department is now able to promise that the registered Certificates of Stock and a good part of the Coupon Bonds of the New Loan of the United States, bearing Five per cent. Interest, payable quarterly in Gold, will be ready for delivery early in the present month. The Subscriptions to the Loan now amount to $62,000,000, and it is expected that the Subscriptions and Sales will progress more rapidly when the Certificates and Bonds are ready for market abroad as well as at home. The whole sum of Five per Cents offered to the public generally, and to the holders of United States 5-20 Bonds, without qualification, is $200,000,000. When this amount to which preference is thus given, is taken up, the remainder of the Five per Cents, $300,000,000, embraced in the New Loan of July 14, 1870, for refunding the Public Debt, will be offered in connection with $300,000,000 of Four and one-half per Cents, and any part of $700,000,000 of Four per Cents, the one running fifteen years and the other thirty years.

The following is a copy of the New Five per Cent Bond, under and pursuant to the New Loan Act of Congress:

FORM OF FIVE PER CENT. BOND.

INTEREST | FUNDED LOAN OF 1881 | 5 PER CENT

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ARE INDEBTED TO THE BEARER IN THE SUM OF
..............DOLLARS.

THIS BOND is issued in accordance with the provisions of an Act of Congress entitled "An Act to authorize the refunding of the National Debt," approved July 14, 1870, amended by an Act approved January 20, 1871, and is redeemable at the pleasure of the United States, after the first day of May, A. D., 1881, in Coin of the standard value of the United States on said July 14, 1870, with interest in such Coin, from the date of the date hereof, at the rate of FIVE PER CENTUM per annum, payable quarterly on the first days of February, May, August and November, in each year. The principal and interest are exempt from the payment of all Taxes or Duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form, by or under State, municipal, or local authority.

WASHINGTON..............18..
Entered.............Recorded.............
Register of the Treasury.

Registered Bonds will be issued of the denomination of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000, and coupon bonds of each denomination except the last two. The interest will be payable in the United States, at the office of the Treasurer, any Assistant Treasurer, or designated depository of the Government quarterly, on the first days February, May, August, and November, in each year.

The interest on the Registered Stock of this Loan, it is determined by the Treasury Department, will be paid as conveniently to the holder as on the Coupon Stock, and personal attendance, or attendance by proxy, at the Treasury, to draw and receipt for the interest will be dispensed with, whenever the check of the United States Treasurer, mailed punctually to the address and order of each holder, on or before every quarter-day, is preferred to such attendance. This check, payable in Gold Coin at the Treasury in New York, (or such other office as the Stock is registered at,) will be negotiable or collectable on the indorsement of the owner or owners of the Stock. In pursuance of this arrangement, the subscribers to, or purchasers of, the Stock in its registered form, (which is a complete protection against theft or other losses incident to Coupon Bonds payable to Bearer) are advised to give the Post-office address in full, and to notify of any change in the address between quarter days.

The whole proceeds of the new loan will be applied to the payment or redemption and cancellation of the 5-20 years six per cent. bonds, and, in addition to these proceeds, the 5-20s are now being reduced by purchase at the rate of $10,000,000 per month.

The entire effect, therefore, of the New Loan in connection with the existing Sinking Fund process of the Treasury, is to reduce both Principal and Interest of the Public Debt of the United States. The Loan creates no additional supply of Government Stocks, while the application of the surplus revenues derived in Gold from Customs is constantly lessening as it has been doing for two years past, the Funded Stocks bearing six per cent. Gold Interest.

The 1st of May schedule of the Public Debt which has just been published by the Secretary of the Treasury, shows a reduction in these Stocks since the April schedule of $12,215,700, and a further lessening of the yearly interest charge thereon of $732,942. This leaves the total yearly interest charge in Gold $111,982,034. In the same month the Treasury paid and canceled $2,470,000 of the Three per Cent. Currency Debt, reducing the whole of this debt bearing interest to $51,023,000, and the yearly interest charge thereon to $1,537,470.

The proposed further reduction of the annual interest charge upon the Public Debt by refunding is as follows:

By exchange of $500,000,000 United States six per cents for new five per cents of 1881	$5,000,000
By exchange of $300,000,000 United States six per cents for four and a half per cents of 1886	4,500,000
By exchange of $700,000,000 United States six per cents for four per cents of 1901	14,000,000
Total saving per annum by refunding	$23,500,000

The large and rapid accumulation in the last few years of private capital now retired from active business, and of the cash Savings and Life Insurance premiums deposited with or intrusted to the provident institutions of the country—all seeking the most undoubted security, pledged to be kept free of all taxes, under national or local authority, and content, provided this object be assured, with moderate rate of interest—will, no doubt, ultimately absorb so much of these New Stocks as may not be taken in voluntary conversion of United States 5-20s, or marketed abroad.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL,
DAVID STANTON, of Beaver Co.
SURVEYOR GENERAL,
ROBT. B. BEATH, of Schuylkill Co.

BONDS at Frankfort, 96⅝.

IT LOOKS very much as if Republicanism was entirely crushed out in unhappy France. Now comes the question what dynasty shall be restored? Napoleon will not be idle, and it is not improbable that he will again attain the throne.

THE Primary Meetings on Saturday were largely attended, and passed off very harmoniously. The delegates selected, so far as we can judge, will well and faithfully represent their constituents, and select such candidates for office as will merit and receive the support of the people.

WE WANT our readers to know that the Post refuses to tell us whether it acknowledges the legality and binding force of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution. It refuses to go on the record, as to the future intentions of the Democrats, should they gain control of the executive and judicial branches of the government. Jefferson Davis has spoken for the South, and the northern confederates are dumb. We again ask our neighbor to place itself on the record, in reference to these important measures. They are not "dead issues," as is apparent from the maneuvers of the Democratic party, and they will be again agitated so sure as that party regains power; when the Supreme Court will be called upon to declare them unconstitutional, and void. Will the Post say—dare it say—that it will not join in this attempt if made? Are we to have peace, or revolution, in the event of the Democrats of the Jeff Davis school again being elevated to power? Can any sensible person be in doubt?

THE DEMOCRATIC MUDDLE.

Never was a party more completely muddled than is that of the Democracy at the present time. Never were more incoherent or discordant ravings heard among a parcel of drunken brawlers who had become saturated with bad whisky than those which the Democracy are now giving vent to. Unable to contend against the principles which the Republican party has successfully maintained for the past ten years, and to secure the co-operation of the people to assist them in carrying out their fiendish work of national disorganization, they have become embroiled in a family quarrel which bids fair to break them into a thousand pieces.

The most effectual plan to get Republicans out of the way, and thereby secure Democratic ascendancy, and the distribution of spoils among the unterrified, is that recommended by a no less distinguished personage than the Attorney-General of California, who, turning his attention from the irksome work of studying Coke and Blackstone, has been diving deeply into the occult and mysterious mythological science of Vulcanism. According to the opinion of this distinguished democratic jurist, the best and easiest way to get rid of political heresy, misrule and mismanagement, is for the "unterrified" disciples of Vulcan to lay the heads of all Republicans on the "anvil," and with ponderous sledge in hand, and hard and oft repeated blows dealt with brawny arms sever their thick sculls from their offensive bodies. He believes that any other means of "converting" and conquering the Republican party will prove utterly abortive. This proposition has the true Democratic ring. It is undoubtedly characteristic. In none of the speeches of their orators, or platforms of their conventions have we seen anything more truly or genuinely democratic than this. "Knocking at the heads of Republicans" has been the meritorious work of the Democracy of the South for the past few years. Why should not this be made a prominent—indeed, we should say, the most prominent plank in the Democratic platform? It would exhibit their deeply cherished virtues of consistency and sincerity. If votes cannot be forged in this way, they will have to adhere to their "time honored principle" of stuffing the ballot-box.

In Pennsylvania a different line of battle has been formed, and an opposite policy recommended. It is not proposed to batter off the heads of Republicans with smiths' hammers, nor do anything that would affect their political health, so far as regimen is concerned. Not a hair of their head must be touched. No rude hand must raise a ruder hammer against them. They must be cured homoepathically. Medicine and food of their own preparation must be administered, because it has been prepared "in the manner and by the authority constitutionally appointed." In fact, dropping all figures, a safe plat form—not an "anvil"—must be constructed of Republican timber, which, like the wood used by Noah in building the Ark, is incorruptible and "eternal," upon which all may stand and enjoy the most perfect security. Then Republicans shall be invited to occupy seats on it, which they cannot refuse to do, without being discourteous to their purely disinterested friends who have shown so much regard for their judgment as to endorse their principles. And beneath the platform all Democratic issues shall be buried for ever, and the situation brought about by the arbitrament of the sword shall be unqualifiedly accepted.

The Ohio Democracy do not approve of this plan entirely. True they have not declared extermination by force, but they will accept the work which has been accomplished by the Republican party by fraud and violence, or "extraordinary means." This is also characteristic of the Democracy. It matters little with them what the means may be that are employed, provided they can only secure the end.

The Northern Democratic journals declare there are no Ku Kluxers in the South, and even if there were, they should be allowed to perpetrate their nefarious deeds unmolested. But the Democracy of Tennessee admit the existence of the Ku Kluxers and have resolved themselves into a posse comitatus to be ready, at the call of the Sheriff or Marshal, to arrest and bring to justice all persons who may be guilty of violating any of the provisions of the Ku Klux act, and go so far as to offer a standing reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of every offender against the act.

Throughout the country the Democratic journals are greatly divided on the subject of the new departure. Some heartily endorse it. Others as heartily oppose it. One Pennsylvania journal pronounces the ninth resolution in the Harrisburg platform to be "a lie." Others refuse to define their position, and are waiting to see which way the popular tide will set in.

Andrew Johnson, of circular fame, is for repudiating the National Debt and eliminating the recent Constitutional amendments from the fundamental law of the nation. Jeff. Davis "accepts nothing," and pronounces those cowards who say that the arbitrament of the sword decided anything. The chivalry of Atlanta and other places in Georgia, applaud his utterances and wish him God's speed in the prosecution of this noble and patriotic work of exciting the people to another rebellion. The Pittsburgh Post is decidedly of the opinion that Davis should give out a different "policy" and attend to the more humane and benevolent work of insuring mens' lives.

When doctors differ, who shall decide? It would puzzle the best minds of this or any other nation to calculate the variations of the Democratic compass at the present time. The house of the "pure and undefiled" is fearfully divided, and the best authority that we can find gives the assurance that a house divided against itself cannot stand, but must fall. We sympathize most profoundly with our friends in their present muddled condition, but rejoice that there are so many of them returning to political sanity, as is indicated in their endorsement and approval of the patriotic doctrines which Republicans have promulgated, and have proved so beneficial to the nation.

PAPAL BAPTISM.

During the Sessions of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, held in this city last year, the question was raised:—Is Papal Baptism valid? The subject was discussed extensively for several days, but no deliverance was given on it. Indeed, it was scarcely competent to the Assembly to pronounce an opinion upon the subject, inasmuch as it was a delegated body and had received no instructions from the Presbyteries or lower courts of the church. With the view of affording time for deliberation, and giving the whole church an opportunity of expressing their opinions, as well as disposing of the question in accordance with the laws of Presbyterianism, it was sent down in overture to the different Presbyteries under the jurisdiction of the Assembly.

At the annual meeting of the same body, which has been held this year at Xenia, Ohio, a report was made of the action of the presbyteries in the premises, from which it appears that 494 votes were cast against the validity of the ordinance of baptism as administered by the Roman Catholic Church, 41 in favor, 82 declining to vote on the question at all. Taken by the presbyteries, there were only thirteen, out of the fifty-four of which the Church is composed, that declared in favor of accepting it as valid, and these only expressed the opinion that it was not necessary or expedient to take any action on the subject. But even in this mild form of expressing it, it will be seen that they have been out-voted by a large majority. Out of respect for the judgment of these thirteen presbyteries, which are among the largest and most influential in the Church, and in the belief that in the present state of things, a law on the subject would be generally disregarded, a minority of the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommended the adoption of a resolution to the effect, that while, as a general rule, Papal baptism should be held to be invalid by the United Presbyterian Church, yet as it is believed by many that there are important exceptions to this rule, it is not expedient to render any decision at present. Pending the consideration of this motion, a substitute was entertained by the Assembly, in the following words: "It is the voice of the church that Papal baptism has been declared invalid."

The reports which we have received do not state whether the substitute was finally adopted, but it would appear from the temper and state of feeling in the Assembly that it will be. We infer from what we have seen of the proceedings that there was a strong feeling manifested by a goodly number of the members of the Convention to declare the validity of baptism when administered by a regular priest of the Catholic Church, and to pronounce it invalid when administered by laymen, or private individuals.

It is not our province, perhaps, to give a deliverance in regard to the justness or unjustness of a decree made by a Protestant Church, by whatever name called, that Papal baptism is invalid. Churches have a right to frame their own decrees and enact their own laws, no matter what may be the opinion of outsiders. But no decree made by any ecclesiastical court on earth will affect the validity or invalidity of an ordinance in the opinion of the Supreme Court of Heaven. If it is valid in the estimation of the Supreme Judge of all things, no court on earth can render it invalid, and vice versa. But whatever may be said of baptism administered by private individuals who have not assumed "holy orders," we do not see why an objection should be raised against its validity when administered by a regularly ordained priest or minister of any denomination.

In the third century, Stephen, Bishop of Rome, excommunicated the Asiatic Christians, who, in different councils, decreed that "heretics" should be re-baptized before they were received into the communion of the Church. But the African bishops paid no regard to the decree of Stephen. They treated it with contempt, and declared that baptism when administered by heretics was invalid. In the Council of Nice it was decreed that those who had been baptized by "heretics" might be admitted to fellowship in the Church without re-baptism, by the imposition of hands, except such as had not been baptized in the name of the sacred Trinity. The question, however, is not one of ecclesiastical comity. It is not a mere consideration as to the courtesy that should be observed between different denomiations of Christians. It is a divine institution, and authority to dispense it must be derived from the great Founder of the Christian system. No law, therefore, of a retaliatory character should be enacted by any church. Whatever may be the final conclusion of the United Presbyterian Assembly in relation to it, we are sure that they will not be influenced in the least, in arriving at it, by a spirit of retaliation. Whatever may be the action which they shall take in the matter will be dictated by an honest conviction of duty.

Fastest Time Made.

The Louisville Courier-Journal in speaking of the recent Lexington (Ky.) races says: The Lexington Press gives the following account of this exciting and unprecedented dash. The first quarter was made in 25½ seconds. Fadladeen leading from the first, and the half-mile post passed in 49½ seconds. Then came the tug of war; and the Press tells the rest of the story: "The leader holds his own, but Tubman leaves his rival and drives ahead. Thus strung out, they come down the stretch at amazing speed, Tubman accomplishing wonders and run under the string in the same order, in 1:43. Fadladeen first, Tubman second and Exchange third, the remainder scattering. And no wonder they scattered. Such time for a four-year old is the best on record. Indeed, the performance of the horses on yesterday will long be remarkable in racing annals. Not only was the best time ever made for one mile made over the Lexington course, but the second heat in the stake race on yesterday was the best ever made by a four-year-old Menona made the second heat in 1:44½ in 1863 and Herzog made his second heat in Cincinnati in 1:43¼, but these were by three-year-olds."

LAST Tuesday morning at Mill Creek, near Buchanan, in Boutetourt, Virginia, a man beat his wife to death on account of her having an improper intimacy with some negroes in the neighborhood. He was lodged in jail at Tincastle.

Peter Cooper's Address.

At the twelfth annual commencement of the Cooper Institute fifteen hundred of the students and graduates presented an address to their grand old founder, who in turn delivered the following noble reply:

MY YOUNG FRIENDS:—If I need any reward for my humble efforts to benefit my fellow-men, the touching language of your address, and this expression of your affection and gratitude, would be ample compensation for labors however exacting and sacrifices however great. Happily, however, works of benevolence carry with them their own recompense, even though they do not meet with the recognition which has fallen to my lot, and which makes me feel that this occasion is the crowning happiness of a life which has passed its eightieth anniversary. In that long experience I have learned lessons which, if I could induce you, my young friends, who have your future before you, and others who have left their past behind them, to lay them to their heart, and to practise in the conduct of life would greatly lessen the evils of society and improve the condition of the land and the time in which we live While yet a child I learned that the "hand of the diligent maketh rich," and whatever of wealth I have achieved has been due, primarily, to habits of patient industry formed at the outset of my career. I soon learned that "waste makes want," and I therefore saved what I earned; and by taking "stitches in time" guarded against the loss which unavoidably attends upon neglect and want of forethought. It did not take long for me to learn that drunkenness was the parent of the larger portion of poverty, vice and crime which afflict the American people: and hence, until advancing age seemed to demand moderate stimulants, I carefully avoided alcoholic liquors as the greatest curse of the young and the most deadly foe to domestic happiness and the public welfare. Next, I observed that most of the ship-wrecks in life were due to debts hastily contracted, and out of proportion to the means of the debtor; and hence I always avoided debt, and endeavored to keep some ready money on hand to avail of a favorable opportunity for its profitable use. With economy and industry it is easy to do this in this favored land; and in my case the result has been that, amid all the financial revulsions through which I have passed, no obligation of mine has ever been a day in arrear. Debt is a slavery which young men ought to avoid, or, if assumed, ought not to endure for one day beyond the shortest time necessary to set him free, Shunning intemperance and debt, and practicing industry, rigid economy, and self-denial, it was easy to be honest, and to acquire such knowledge as the opportunities of this city offered in the days of my youth. But these opportunities were so limited—there being no free schools by day, nor any night schools whatever—that I found it far more difficult to learn what I wanted to know than to be industrious, temperate and prudent. Hence I decided, if I should prosper in the acquisition of worldly means, to found an institution to which all young people of the working classes who desired to be good citizens and to rise in life could resort, without money and without price, in order to acquire that knowledge of their business and science which in these days is absolutely indispensable to a successful career. Providence, in accordance with the declaration that to "faith all things are possible," did bless my efforts; and this institution, and these encouraging evidences of its value and its fruits presented here to-night, are the result of this resolution, never lost sight of during a business career of nearly sixty years; in which I was cheered, comforted, sustained, and encouraged by the greatest of human blessings, a diligent, wise, industrious, faithful, and affectionate wife; and in the work of founding this institution, aided by the earnest sympathy and active co-operation of my children, who justly regarded as the richest portions of their inheritance that part of my wealth which I desired to consecrate to the public welfare Hence my last lesson for the young is to marry at the proper age when, and not before, they can see the way clear to a decent and comfortable support, and thus fulfil the first law of nature with a high and holy sense of its happiness and duties, the greatest and most serious in the path of life. Love and duty I have ever found to be the passwords of all that is true and noble in life, and when they are separated, the fires on the family altar die out, and life loses all its charms, never to be compensated by the false jewels which are often worn in the public gaze. These are, indeed, simple truths, which I have endeavored to set forth in words equally simple, because I feel sure from a very long experience, that they will do good to every young man and young woman who will firmly resolve to make them the rule of life; and because I began life without means, and know the truth of what I affirm. But, having also acquired what is regarded as riches, have I earned the right, by the use I have made of them, to give any advice or speak a word of encouragement to others, who, by the will of God, are entrusted with the great responsibility of wealth? Whether I have this right or not, I feel impelled to record my conviction, derived from personal experience, that the rich man who regards his wealth as a sacred trust to be used for the welfare of his fellow-men, will surely derive more true enjoyment from it in this world than from the most lavish expenditure on mere personal enjoyments and social display. I do not pretend to prescribe any standard of expenditure for others, and I am quite ready to subscribe to the doctrine that a just and faithful trustee should be liberally paid for his services, and should not be restricted in the reasonable gratification of his desires so long as the rights of others are not thereby infringed; and I desire to give the fullest recognition to the sacredness of private property and the conservation of capital, as for the best interests of society and all the members thereof; but I cannot shut my eyes to the fact that the production of wealth is not the work of one man, and the acquistion of great fortunes is not possible without the co-operation of multitudes of men, and that therefore, the individuals to whose lot these fortunes fall whether by inheritance, or the laws of production and trade, should never lose sight of the fact that as they hold them only by the will of society, expressed in statute law, so they should administer them as trustees for the benefit of society, as inculcated by the moral law. When rich men are thus brought to regard themselves as trustees, and poor men learn to be industrious, economical, temperate, self-denying and dilligent in the acquisition of knowledge, then the deplorable strife between capital and labor, tending to destroy their fundamental, necessary and irrefragible harmony will cease: and the world will no longer be afflicted with such unnatural industrial conflicts as we have seen during the past century in every quarter of the civilized globe, and latterly on so great a scale in this country, arraying those whom nature intended to be firm allies and inseparable friends into hostile camps in which the great law of love and mutual forbearance is extinguished by selfish passions. The law of force, whether expressed in trade associations, preventing other men from exercising their inalienable right to labor where they can find work, or in combinations of capitalists, seeking by lockouts to close up the avenues of labor are equally reprehensible and should never be allowed, under any provocation whatever, to take the place of the divine law: "Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them; nor will such an unnatural and criminal substitution ever be possible: if poor men will remember that it is the duty, and therefore the right, of every poor man to strive to become rich by honest, intelligent and patient labor; and if rich men will remember that the possession of wealth, which is the fruit of the general effort, confers no right to its use as an engine of oppression or coercion upon any class which is concerned for its production. Let me then record that, during a long life passed in active business, I have never known any but evil consequences to all classes, and especially to the innocent, to result from strikes, lock-outs or other forcible measures designed to interfere with the steady and regular march of productive industry, and I feel justified in an earnest appeal to both workmen and capitalists henceforth to regard each other as equals and friends; and to imitate the great example so recently set by the enlightened governments of Great Britain and the United States, in the submission of their differences to arbitration: and not to expect to reform social evils by combinations designed to force either side into the acceptance of unpalatable terms, by the stern logic of starvation and indiscriminate ruin. Reform, to be of any permanent value, must be based upon personal virtue, not force; and it seems to me that the millenium will not be far off, when each individual shall set about reforming himself rather than society, and conforming his life to the great law of loving God and his fellow-men. While I thank you, my young friends (I had almost said my children,) for this manifestation of your respect and gratitude, so touching because so full of love, let me ask you to accept of this feeble but heartfelt reply as a kind of last will and testament of the garnered experience of an old friend, whose days are almost numbered, and who asks only to be remembered as "one who loved his fellow-men."

POLITICAL.

A TEMPERANCE Convention to nominate State officers is to be held at Watertown, Wisconsin, on Tuesday, June 6.

COLONEL D. C. GIDDINGS has been nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention in the Third District of Texas.

THE Democrats of Kentucky, for some reason, are making prodigious efforts to carry their State at the next election. They have called into the field their best speakers.

ANDREW JOHNSON has been interviewed in regard to Vallandigham's programme, and says he thinks there are some sensible points in it, but that the Democracy mustn't "depart" too much.

IN the Connecticut Senate yesterday, the constitutional amendment providing for only one State capital was lost by a vote of 13 to 8, lacking one vote of the necessary two-thirds required to submit it to the people.

THE Lynchburg Virginian, like the Memphis Appeal, refuses to "depart." It "accepts nothing," in the language of Mr. Davis, and says that it is necessary now, more than ever, to unfurl "the spotless banner of the white man's party."

AT the suggestion of Gov. Alcorn, the Legislature of Mississippi adopted a joint resolution memorializing Congress to refund the amount of the cotton tax collected throughout the Southern States during the years 1865, 1866 and 1867. The amount is estimated at $40,000,000.

ONE Ohio Democratic editor makes a "new departure," which both political parties could adopt with benefit. Speaking of Vallandigham's platform, he says: "Four yards of platform is too much to stand on, Boil it down, make it four inches, and then we are for it."

THE Democratic State Executive Committee of Arkansas, at a recent meeting at Little Rock, declared that "it would be unwise, impolitic and certain of defeat to resurrect the issues on which we were beaten in 1868," and that the party is "willing to let the questions arising out of the war rest where they are."

THE Lynchburg News gives utterance to the following: "Let every Southern man bear in mind that the object of the Kuklux bill is, by provoking Southern violence to keep out the Presidential vote of the South in 1872. If Grant can find a pretext, he will do it, and the whole aim of the South should be not to give him a pretext. Let everybody study self-control."

THE Galveston News says of the reception of Mr. Greeley in Galveston: "We hold that the ovation bestowed yesterday and to-day on Horace Greeley is in all its surroundings and circumstances one of the most remarkable occurrences of the day. It is a tribute to honesty and manhood, such as no man in this age has received, and such as is more honorable to him than would be a monarch's crown or an Emperor's diadem. It is the homage which the Israelite bestows on the virtues of a crucified Jesus. It is the respect that royalty lays on the grave of Washington. It is the honor that loyal men and loyal soldiers give to the memory of their dead enemy, General Lee. It is the tear that old rebels drop for the homely virtues and kindly heart of their dead enemy, Abraham Lincoln. It is the tribute that manhood gives to integrity, and this lesson impressed upon our young is worth a dozen schools, and a half score of colleges."

OIL NEWS.

The East Brady Independent has the following:

ARMSTRONG RUN.

The Twin well, No. 6, owned by Dr James and others was struck on the 31st ult. The hole began to fill rapidly, and while we were present, there was about 1,250 feet of oil in the well and rapidly rising.

The Andrews, Wolf & Co. well, No. 9, which for some time has been pumping 40 barrels per day, made a fine flow on the morning of the 31st ult., of about 30 barrels.

The Clark well, No. 10, since Saturday, May 28th, at which time it was torpedoed, has been pumping 75 barrels per day.

The Jennings & Schoonmaker well, a new strike, is pumping 65 barrels per day.

The amount of oil shipped over the pipe line for the month of May is nearly 9,500 barrels.

BEAR CREEK.

I visited Bear Creek yesterday, and submit the following:

On Tuesday last A. N. Hamor drew the tubing and torpedoed his "Montana." It is producing 45 barrels per day.

Mr. Donnelly's No. 2 is ten feet in the third sand and is flowing so strong that it is impossible to continue drilling. Squire Marvin says, he expects to get thoroughly greased to-morrow, (May 30th,) while tubing.

We have a grand phenomenon about three-fourths of a mile above the bridge, viz: the Cannon Well, which flows water 30 feet above the top of the derrick, at intervals of from 5 to 15 minutes. It is visited daily by large numbers. Mr. Cannon has made three unsuccessful attempts to seed-bag the hole, but so great is the force of gas and quantity of water that it tears the seed-bags and cups before they get to a depth of 300 feet.

CLARION RIVER.

Bovard and Palmer have struck a splendid well on the Clarion river, six miles from the mouth, which is reported at 64 barrels. It is called the Nellie well. This well opens up a large area of territory to oil purposes, and we doubt not an immense excitement will follow.

PARKER OIL FIELD.

The well on the Campbell reserve, south of Bear Creek, adjoining the Shepard farm, is in the third sand, with favorable indications.

The Bremen well on the Robinson farm, away up Hovey Run, owned by Crawford, M'Farland, Purviance and others, we are told, is making fully twenty barrels per day.

To be Revived.—The Clark well on Hovey Run, Robinson farm, has been standing for some three months. It is soon to be torpedoed, cleaned out and started up.

The Shepherd well, in Lawrenceburg, has ceased to pump oil. The rig has been principally all removed to the south side of Bear Creek, where it is to be used for sinking another hole.

On Tuesday last while the tubing was being cut in Blystone well No. 1, Robinson farm, the rope slipped and twelve joints dropped to the bottom of the well.

The Forker well, on the Robinson farm, adjoining the Duchess, still continues to pump near one hundred barrels per day. The exact estimate is said to be ninety six barrels daily.

The well on the Gibson farm, being put down by James M. Lambing, has reached a depth of 1175 feet. This well is located about two miles south of Bear Creek, on the west side of the Queenstown road.

Another well owned by Overy and others, was tubed and commenced pumping on Monday last, which is represented as throwing oil this day, Thursday, at the rate of 20 or 25 barrels per day. This well is located on the Queenstown road, just above "Glory Hole" No. 2.

The Black Farm.—The undivided one-half interest in this farm, containing sixty seven acres, was sold recently by S. D. Karns, and M'Kinney & Nesbitt, to Ex-Gov. Wm. Bigler, of Clearfield, and Phillips Brothers, for the sum of twenty-one thousand dollars.

The following wells on Hovey Run, Robinson farm, have played out and the rigs have been removed elsewhere: Empire No. 1 and 2; Idahoe, Little Jim, Orange Blossom, Good Intent Nos. 1 and 2, and Spurr well. These wells are sunk on pretty good territory; but unfortunately they were too much crowded and all could not survive. Operators, we trust, will profit by the foolishness exhibited here and reserve more room in the future.—N. W. Independent.

A Cure for Leprosy.

A cure for leprosy has been discovered in India. According to the Pioneer, medical science has at last triumphed over this terrible disease. The civil surgeon of Khundwa reports the case of an old Jew who came to him from Bombay in great grief, saying that his friends had excluded him from their society, and obliged him to live in a hut by himself. He was at this time pleasingly mottled with rose-color. The doctor had him at once washed with soap and warm water, and the old Jew showed signs of improvement. He was then anointed with carbolic acid and oil with such good effects that next day he wrote to his wife to expect him home in a week. In short, what with washing with soap and water, and what with anointing with carbolic acid and oil, the old Jew was soon completely cured. The experiment had, moreover, an interest apart from the fact that an ancient scourge was being conquered, in the chameleon variations of the corpus vile under experiment. The Jew came to Khundwa rose-color and brown; in a week or two he was glossy black and brown; a little later he became speckled gray; then his skin—possibly uneasy at what might happen next—lost all patience with its owner, and peeled away from him, leaving him just the color a Jew ought to be. He lives in the hut no longer, and has been received into the society of his family and friends.

HARD RUBBER TRUSSES.

You have observed posted up around the city placards of hard rubber trusses, which are said to retain any rupture, however severe, with the additional advantage that they will not rust or corrode. Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, has these, as well as every other kind of truss that may be needed for the relief and cure of hernia or rupture of the bowels. Let the afflicted remember as they go along that Dr. Keyser's after all is the place. If you want cheap trusses, from two dollars and upwards, the Doctor has them, as well as the best and highest quality that can be procured in the United States.

To the ruptured, there is nothing of equal importance to have a well fitting and properly adjusted instrument, therefore let not persons who have a breach or rupture waste valuable time in trying useless and inefficient remedies, when a sure and absolute relief can be obtained at Dr Keyser's Truss Depot, 167 Liberty street, which is at the same time an office for the cure of every chronic disease. Cut this advertisement out, so that you can remember the place. my23

NOW THEY ARE FRESH.

Fresh arrival—Just received. 50 cases St. Louis Michigan Water. 25 cases of Hathord Saratoga Water. 10 cases of High Rock Congress Water. 10 barrels Blue Lick Water. Just received direct from the Springs. James E. Burns a Co.'s Drug Store and Mineral Water Depot, corner Penn and Sixth streets, (old St. Clair.)

N. B.—Where you will find the finest Minera Water in the city, Kissengen, Vichy, Blue Lick and Congress on draught, drawn from the marble founts, and one of the finest west of New York city.

A PITIFUL CONDITION.

It is a sad thing to pass through life only half alive. Yet there are thousands whose habitual condition is one of languor and debility. They complain of no specific disease; they suffer no positive pain; but they have no relish for anything which affords mental or sensuous pleasure to their more robust and energetic fellow-beings.

In nine cases out of ten this state of lassitude and torpor arises from a morbid stomach. Indigestion destroys the energy of both mind and body. When the waste of nature is not supplied by a due and regular assimiliation of the food, every organ is starved, every function interrupted.

Now, what does common sense suggest under these circumstances of depression? The system needs reusing and strengthening: not merely for an hour or two, to sink afterwards into a more pitiable condition than ever, (as it assuredly would do if an ordinary alcoholic stimulant were resorted to,) but radically and permanently.

How is this desirable object to be accomplished? The answer to this question, founded on the unvarying experience of a quarter of a century, is easily given. Infuse new vigor into the digestive organs by a coarse of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Do not waste time in administering temporary remedies, but wake the system up by recuperating the fountain-head of physical strength and energy, the great organ upon which all the other organs depend for their nurture and support.

By the time that a dozen doses of the great vegetable tonic and invigorant have been taken, the feeble frame of the dyspeptic will begin to feel its benign influence. Appetite will be created, and with appetite the capacity to digest what it craves. Persevere until the cure is complete—until healthful blood, fit to be the material of flesh and muscle, bone and nerve, and brain, flows through the channels of circulation, instead of the watery pabulum with which they have heretofore been imperfectly nourished. my5

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

The week closes upon a comparatively easy money market. The current rates for first class paper continues at 9@9½, and for less acceptable names 10@12.

The local stock market has undergone no change. There is a scarcity of first class stocks, and prices are therefore high. Gold is steady at 112@112¼ and U. S. Bonds have scarcely moved during the day. The Railway list is weaker under heavy loan sales. Bank statement good.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Gold was rather dull opening at 112¼, selling down to 111⅞, and closing at 12½. Loans were made at from 1 to 1½ per cent. Clearings $44,000,000. Exports today $1,446,000; for the week, $2,038,500. Governments quiet and firm, with but little change in price. The Bears continued their attack on stocks again to-day, but their gold plan of yesterday failed. It appears that in the difficult advance in price the Bears have unsold stock heavily, and almost the entire list is in active borrowing demand, but more particularly noticed in Lake Shore, Rock Island, New York Central and Union Pacific. Features of the market has been Rock Island and Lake Shore, which was strong and active al day, and the remainder of the list was barely steady and weak. Stocks; Western Union, New York Central and Pacific Mail. The market closed heavy on all except Lake Shore and Rock Island, which were buoyant. A rapid recovery in prices is looked for next week, as a heavy short interest of course forms fresh basis for an upward turn, when the cliques are ready. Money continues abundant at 3@4 per cent., and the bank statement which is favorable, indicates continued ease. The following are the changes: Loans, increase of $160,510. Specie, decrease of $15,950,234. Legal tenders, increase of $2,670,415. Deposits, increase $28,892,752. Circulation, decrease of $10,251. State bonds dull and steady, without much change in prices.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash, 4¼@4½; refined do. 4¾@4¾; Pearls, 9@9½; Pots, 7¾@7¾.

BUTTER—Has been very dull all week, we might say for several weeks, though there is no quotable change in prices, and the receipts although not heavy are amply sufficient to supply the demand. We continue to quote at 12@14 for fair to good and 15@16c for strictly prime.

BEANS—Season almost over; there is an occasional inquiry for prime navy and the supply of this kind is almost exhausted; common and medium grades very dull—not wanted at any price. Prime white navy may be quoted at $2.00.

BROOM CORN—Dull and unchanged.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 30@32 cts.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@2,75 per bbl Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,25@4,50.

CARBON OIL—Is firm but quiet; standard brands, in a jobbing way, 23@23½—about one cent more in small lots.

CANNED GOODS—Tomatoes rather firmer but unchanged, at $2,62½ per dozen for standard brands. Peaches more active but unchanged, $2,25@2,50, for 2 lb cans, and $3,25@3,50 for 3 lb cans. Corn is still quoted at $2.50@2.75.

CHEESE—Continues dull, and, with liberal receipts and a light demand, a still further decline is expected. Prime Goshen, 13½@14; Factory, 12½@13; Dairy, 11@12.

COUNTRY BACON—The receipts have fallen off somewhat recently, but the supply is still in excess of the demand and holders are anxious to work it off, being apprehensive that it will not keep during the hot weather; we continue to quote shoulders at 6@6½; ribbed sides, 7@7½; clear sides, 8@8½. Hams, 10@12. Country Lard, 9@10, and dull.

CORN MEAL—We can report small sales at 85@90 cts per bushel.

EGGS—Continue weak with a supply considerably in excess of the demand and prices are weak and unchaged; 18 cts may now be regarded as the ruling quotation. It is worthy of notice that there is no chance to ship east, as prices are and have been for some days past, relatively higher here than in the east.

FEATHERS—Scarce and in demand, with sales of No. 1 live geese feathers at 74@75—usual advance in a small way.

FLOUR—Has been moderately active during the week, though the demand is mainly local and prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote red winter wheat at $7,00@7,25; white wheat at $7,50; good spring extras, $7,00 and choice baker's flour, $7.25. Rye Flour, $6, in a small way.

FRUITS—Green Apples, none in market. Dried fruit dull and the stock, particularly of of anything good, is very light; apples, 5@7 cts; peaches, 10@11 for quarters, 11½@12½ for mixed, and 13@14c for halves. Oranges, $6,50@7; Lemons scarce and higher, $7,00@7,50 per box. Prunes lower, 10c for Turkey, and 11@12 for French. Currants 10½@10¾c. Layer Raisins, $3 per bx; Valencia's, 13 cts per lb.

GRAIN—The receipts are only moderate and with a steady milling demand prices are well maintained, $1,40@1,47 for red and $1,50@1,57 for white; there is but comparatively little No. 1 wheat offering, and, consequently, it sells more readily and at relatively better prices than the poorer grades. Oats, market is steady and prices fully maintained, though the feeling in regard to the future is a little mixed; we now quote at 60@61 buying and 62@63 selling—small lots, in store, 65@67. So far as we can learn the crop at present in the sections of country tributary to this market, does not present a very promising appearance. Corn continues dull, though prices are without quotable change; sales during the week at 65@67 for mixed ear and prime yellow, in bulk, is being offered at 70@71. Very little doing in Rye; not much offering and the demand does not seem to be urgent; dealers are paying $1,00 for small lots—a round lot would bring 3@5 cts more. The market is bare of Barley, excepting what is in the hands of consumers, and there will be little or nothing done until the new crop is ready to move.

GROCERIES—Sugar—The past week has witnessed another sudden change in the sugar market, showing a decline of ¼c per lb in Refined with a corresponding decline in the raw material used by refiners. The decline has taken dealers by surprise, the opinion having been that sugars had touched bottom at 12¾ for refined at the factories. It is thought by many traders that an effort is being made to bear down the market so as to give the refiners an opportunity to purchase stocks at low rates for the summer and fall business. If this should prove to be true, an advance in refined goods may be looked for as soon as the purposes of the "bears" are accomplished. This theory seems to gain favor, in view of the fact that it is at refining sugars that the strike has been made, while the higher grades, for grocers' sales, are held up, with no apparent disposition to unsettle. The arrivals last week at the eastern ports were large, but not in excess of same time last year. Molasses Sugars are quoted lower. Coffee has still further declined, except in the finest grades, which are scarce and wanted. We look for a further decline in medium and low grades. The stock is large and increasing. Rice—Carolina still scarce and held at high figures, but has not yet reached the highest point of last year. Ragoon and Patna, in liberal supply at our quotations. Syrups—Off and owners anxious to sell all kinds of goods made from molasses—the supply of the raw material being in large surplus.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Elders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; Loverings, 63; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11¾; prime, 11¼ good, 10¾; fully fair, 10¾; Porto Rico Sugars, 10¾@11¾; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11¾@12¼.

TEAS—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 40; Good, $1 10; Fair, $1. Lower grades down to 70cts. G. P. Fancy, $1 50; good, $1 25; fair, $1 10; Imperial Fancy, $1 40; good, $1 25; fair, $1; Oolong fancy, $1 25; good, $1 [illegible]; fair, 60@70c; Souchong fancy, $1 20; good, 90c; fair, 70@80c; Japan Fancy, $1; good, 90c; fair, 75c.

HAY—Is a shade easier but unchanged; sales on wharf at $16@19, according to quality and condition.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2½@2¾ cts.

HEMP—Rough Kentucky, $175 per ton; dressed, 14 cts per lb.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $3,25 per bbl and eastern at $1,75.

MILL FEED—Sales from store, in a jobbing way, at $1,40@1,50 for Bran; $1,65@1,85 for Middlings and $2,50 for oil meal.

POTATOES—The receipts within the past few days have been on the increase and the supply is again fully up to the demand, and there has been no decline as yet, it is generally expected that there will be one before many days elapse. Prime Lake Shore Peach Blows may be quoted at $1,30 per bushel in store and western at $1,20@1,25.

PEA NUTS—Quiet and unchanged at 10@10½ cts.

PROVISIONS—Plain Shoulders, 7@7¼; ribbed sides, 9; clear sides, 10; canvassed sugar cured shoulders, 10@10¼; do hams, 14¾@15; Breakfast Bacon, canvassed 13; Dried Beef, 18@19. Lard, in tcs, 11 cts; in kegs and buckets, 12. Mess Pork, $17,00@17,50.

POULTRY—Live Chickens quoted at 70@75 cts per pair, by the coop.

SEEDS—There is little or no inquiry for either Clover or Timothy Seeds and the season may be regarded as over. Flaxseed is scarce and wanted—may be quoted firm at $2,20@2,25.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4½ cts.

WILLOWS—Sales Kentucky willows at 10

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

CATTLE.

There has been but little done since the date of our last report, on Wednesday, and the operations for the week were comparatively light, the sales in the aggregate being some 300 head less than last week. As will be seen, the receipts were liberal footing up 253 cars, but the great proportion of these were through stock, and besides, quite a number went through in first hands, holders being unwilling to sell here at the prices, and the probability is that they will go further incur more expense and fare worse; this is the experience of three-fourths of those who refuse to sell here and ship east. Prices differ but little from the early part of the week; one load of very fine steers brought 6¾, and we understand that there was another lot sold at 6¾, but it was alleged that the buyer in this last instance was not well posted and that he paid too much. With these three exceptions, all the sales this week were made at 6 cts and under.

Hedges & Taylor sold for McGeorge to Paine 5, weighing 4,840, at 5.

Childs to Stouffer 16 head of extra fat cattle weighing 19,030, at 6¾.

Jas. White to Tomas Lamb 4 weighing 4,580, at 6; and 8, weighing 11,000, at 6¾.

Saddler, Havens & Co. sold 11 good 1,200 steers to Voetter at 5,85; 2 weighing, 2,120 to Hillegass, at 5¾.

SHEEP.

The receipts were unusually light this week, footing 60 car loads, and the quality generally common. Best 85 to 95 lb Ohio sold readily at close, at previous week's prices, 4¾@5 cts; good, 75 to 80 lbs, 4@4¾; common, 3¾@3¾. Good heavy sheep will be wanted the coming week for New York market at full prices. The shipments during the past week footed up 13,711 head, of which 4,823 went to Philadelphia and 6,764 to New York. Following is a partial report of the sales during past three days:

There will be a full supply of cattle offered at retail to-day.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

The oil market has fluctuated considerably during the week which has just closed, in fact, there has been more or less fluctuation every day, and, while refined closes a shade firmer, crude is weak and lower. If we can judge the future by the past, we may expect a stronger feeling in crude on Monday, and probably an advance in prices, as there has scarcely been a day this week that it has not dropped and rallied again, and, besides, it is generally believed by operators here that there will be nothing like a permanent decline this month, as the producers are interested in sustaining the market until after the 1st of July, as the higher the price at that time the larger will be the differences, and this is what they are after. There are a very large number of options out maturing at that time, and these will have to be satisfied, either by furnishing the oil or paying the difference between the contract price and the price then prevailing. Thus far this has been a bad year for the "shorts," though it is possible that the last half of it may be fully as hard on the longs—there is no telling. To the credit of Pittsburgh, there has been less speculation this year than for several years preceding, nearly all of our operators having adhered strictly to legitimate business, and, consequently, there are but few, if any, Pittsburghers to be squeezed next month.

Receipts of crude this week, 33,996 bbls.; last week, 24,118 bbls.; January 1st to date, 406,380 bbls.; same time last year, 397,128 bbls. Exports refined this week, 17,288 bbls.; last week, 15,759 bbls.; January 1st to date, 206,544 same time last year, 241,556 bbls. Sales this week, 25,800 bbls. crude; 10,500 bbls. refined; last week, 42,000 bbls. crude, 23,000 bbls. refined.

CRUDE.

Very dull, weak and lower, as compared with yesterday. Seller June offered at 13¾; seller all year at 12¾; seller June on creek, offered at $5; seller 90 days, $4.85; and seller 60 at $4.90. Sale 1,000 spot at Parker at $5, 2, a decline of 5@6 cts per bbl as compared with yesterday.

REFINED.

Opened weak and closed firmer. Sales: 500 June at 25¾; 1,000 each July and August at 26¼, and 2,000 each July to September at 26¾. June closed at 26 asked; 26 bid for July, and 26¾ for August and September. Sale 500 bbls on spot at 23, free on cars.

OIL BARRELS.

Weak and drooping. Country make, on spot $1,82@1 85; city, $1,93@1,95; sales 6,000 each month June to December inclusive, at $2.

RIVER NEWS.

The river remains about stationary at this point with something like 28 inches in the channel. Weather continues oppressively hot with occasional showers; prospects for a rise are by no means encouraging.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report and the Carrie Brooks, for Zanesville, is the only departure we have to record.

—We clip the following from the New Orleans Republican: The towboat Horner, en route to this port with a big tow of coal, from Pittsburgh, was so unfortunate as to lose two of her fleet of laden boats at Bonnet Carre crevasse yesterday morning. We did not learn the full particulars of the accident, but understand that the barges were sunk by a collision with some kind of water craft. The towboat J. H. Bigley, from Pittsburgh, came in with an immense tow of coal. She had thirty-two full laden boats, which is considered rather large. Four towboats arrived here yesterday with 58 coalboats in tow, containing 1,200,0 0 bushels of coal. The towboat Ajax left Pittsburgh with 30 coalboats, containing 550,000 bushels of coal. Twelve of these coalboats were dropped at various coal depots, and the remainder, 18, containing 340,000 bushels, were towed to this city. The towboat J. H. Bigley brought down to this city 20 coalboats, containing 45,000 bushels. This is the largest quantity of coal that ever arrived here in one day, and we hope the dealers will now be able to drop the prices.

—The St. Louis Democrat, of Wednesday, says: Durfee & Peck's northwest transportation company have a sure thing of that 6,000 tons of Indian supplies—the contract for transportation. Parker, of New York, the Indian commissioner, has notified Henry Ames & Co. to deliver the amount of bacon they contracted to supply—775,000 pounds—to Messrs. Durfee & Peck. Doubtless all the other contractors have been similarly notified. The steamers E. H. Durfee and Esperanza will be advertised in to-morrow's Democrat.

—The Greyhound with a tow of coal, is bound for Brashear City, Louisiana, by Red river, Atchafalaya and Teche Bayous and Vermillion Bay. Her route will be tortuous and circuitous. In several parts of it the bayous are so narrow that she will not be able to tow more than two boats at one time.....The Hesper was in charge of the United States Marshal, at New Orleans at last account.

—A late St. Louis paper says: Captain John Benson, late of John Kilgour, is in the city, and will remain for some days. It is given out in gossip that he offered $85,000 for the elegant steamer Pargoud, but that the owners would sell her for no less than $100,000. Not being willing to pay so much for her, it is said that he is now trying to get the Belle Lee.

—All river men will regret to learn of a sad misfortune that has happed to Mr. P. H. Lallance, river editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer. His home, at Ravenswood, Ohio, with all that it contained, was destroyed by fire a few nights ago, in the absence of the family. No insurance. The fire originated in a hotel adjoining, which was also destroyed.

—On the 29th the Secretary of the treasury telegraphed to all the supervising inspectors of steamboats to assemble in Washington on the 7th of June next, in order to organize, under the provisions of the act to provide for the better security of life on board vessels propelled in whole or in part by steam, and for other purposes.

—We clip the following from the Middleport Press: The steamer R. W. Skillinger has been sold to Captain S. C. Farley, for the Kanawha trade. We regret to part with the Skillinger and her crew, as the former was a neat and stanch craft and her crew popular and accommodating.

—The La Belle, en route from New Orleans to Camden, broke her shaft and ran through herself opposite Bonnet Carre, Saturday evening. She returned to New Orleans, and the Rapides took her trip.

—There has been a continuous rain along the Ouachita, for 48 hours, and there was every expectation that the Ouachita river would overflow its banks over the entire line.

—The St. Louis Republican says that there is more freight moving toward the Ohio river from there than for ten years past.

—Hon. Horace Greeley was a passenger on the steamer Robert E. Lee on her last trip from New Orleans to Vicksburg.

—The Carter line of Red river packets have all put up a large letter C between their chimneys.

—W. H. Brown, the Pittsburgh coal king, was in St. Louis the other day.

—The Middleport Press calls the Oriole, "the boat without a bar."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

CONSUMPTION.

Its Cure and its Preventive.

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M.D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionary disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbification of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can not be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of the blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time

"As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Resoirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses: the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone for ever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a propylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea-weed Tonic $1 50 a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. apl8:p3-MWF SICK AND AFFLICTED, READ! —Time must necessarily be the final test of everything. The many failures most of right and thought only the few successes are remembered. This is especially true of the science of medicine. A volume would hardly contain the mere names of the medicinal compounds devised during this century, yet the successful ones may be told upon the fingers. Of these few that have proved are SWAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES, which have been tested by more than thirty years of steadily increasing use throughout the globe, and have received the warmest commendation and support from the medical members of the Medical Faculty in every school of practice.

Keep Your Houses Clean,

AND

BY USING THE

Wellman Patent Reflector

STOVE AND GRATE.

Which Stand Without a Rival.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.

1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.

2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.

3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.

4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.

5th. It is highly ornamental.

6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.

7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.

Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.

Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

HOME NEWS.

Fire Last Night.—About twelve o'clock last night an alarm of fire was communicated from box 63. The cause of the alarm was ascertained to be the discovery of flames in the roof of the Pearl Hotel, corner of Penn and Twenty-sixth streets. The Independence and Niagara steamers responded to the call, but before they arrived on the ground the fire had been extinguished. The damage is trifling. We did not learn the origin of the fire.

Arm Broken in Three Places.

A serious accident occurred about three o'clock Friday afternoon at Marvin's crackery bakery on Liberty street. A boy named James Robinson, aged about fifteen years, was working at the cracker machine, and by some means his right arm was caught in the machinery, and was fractured in three places. The lad was removed to the Homeopathic Hospital on Second avenue, where his injuries were looked after by Dr. Burgher. Young Robinson's parents reside on Federal street, Allegheny, and he will be removed to his home as soon as possible.

An Independent Candidate for Mayor.

Mr. John Black, Senior, of the Fourth ward, announces his intention of running as an independent candidate for the office of Mayor. Mr. Black is one of our old merchants, known more as a man of business than as a politician, although he has, we believe, always acted with the Whig or Republican party, and if he had sought and obtained a nomination from this party we would work for his election. Mr. Black is wealthy and out of business and would prefer discharging some public duty to remaining idle—he is a gentleman of good integrity and capacity, and if, between the parties he could slip into the Mayoralty he would discharge its duties with energy and fidelity—but we go for the nominees.

Accident to a Pressman.

At five o'clock Saturday afternoon, Mr. Louis Smith, pressman at the office of the Freiheits Freund, on Smithfield street, met with a very painful accident, and one which may occasion the loss of a portion of his right foot. The injured man was running off the weekly edition of his paper, and found occasion while the press—a Hoe double cylinder—was in motion, to regulate the guide on one of the feed boards. In doing so his foot was caught in the wheel which controls the "fly," and badly crushed and cut nearly off at the toes. The unfortunate man was carried into the reporters' room and Dr. Walters was summoned. After his injuries had received proper attention he was removed to his residence on Chestnut street. The physician expressed the hope that he will be able to save the maimed member, and that amputation may be avoided.

A Sad Case.

About ten o'clock Saturday night a woman and a number of children were found at the north end of the Monongahela suspension bridge. Lieutenant Campbell, on duty at the lock-up, caused the distressed family to be removed to the office of the chief of police where they were provided with lodging for the night.

Her name she states is Catharine Kernan; her husband died some three months since leaving her almost penniless, with a family of six children to support, the eldest of which is a boy only thirteen years of age whilst the youngest is not quite two years. She has been laboring hard ever since doing washing and other work, but has only been able to earn merely enough to put bread in the children's mouths. She has been occupying a house for the past few days owned by a man in South Pittsburgh, who gave her permission to live in the house for at least one month, until she could manage to get sufficient ahead to pay the rent.

Saturday at noon, her landlord came to the house and ordered her to leave, stating that he wished to lease it to an occupant who would suit him much better. She begged to be allowed to remain until Monday at least, until she could make a proper disposition of her children. He, however, refused, and told her that he wished her to pack up at once. She had no place to go, and was compelled to wander the streets with her helpless family for nearly nine hours without one to pity or take the slightest interest in her case. A purse of twenty-eight dollars was raised by a benevolent gentleman who happened to hear of her case, and yesterday the poor woman and her children were sent to their friends, who reside near Philadelphia.

Frankfort Springs.

The well known Frankfort Springs in Beaver county, renowned for their medicinal properties, formerly a favorite resort of many visitors from this city, Wheeling, Steubenville, Washington, Uniontown, &c., &c., it will be seen is advertised to be reopened on or before the first proximo, by Phillip R. Kincaid, Esq., and his excellent lady. Mrs. Kincaid is a daughter of the former proprietor, and was a great favorite of the old time visitors. In her hands visitors may rely on being made comfortable by kind treatment. A good table and a thoroughly well appointed and well kept boarding house. The old M'Ginnis mansion is now undergoing a complete renovation and the grounds are being put in order. Those who have never visited Frankfort Springs should go this season and see for themselves how peculiar and charming a spot nature has provided; the waters of rare and medicinal qualities jetting from the perpendicular sides of a rocky fissure have washed away the intermediate soil, and formed a rivulet and a narrow channel for its escape to a neighboring brook, in which thirty years ago it was our wont to angle for finny prey. Down in the dell thus formed is the haunt of cool and bracing breezes, when only intense heat rules above. We have for years regretted that this lovely spot was not provided with extensive buildings and other accommodations for visitors. It is but twenty-five miles from Pittsburgh, and thousands of its citizens would gladly seek its delightful shades and healing waters.

A few only can be accommodated by Mrs. Kincaid at the Springs, but at the village hard by many more can find plain but comfortable and cheap entertainment. We commend Frankfort Springs to all who prefer an unfashionable, but yet a most comfortable summer resort.

A Pittsburgh Rough Turns up in a New Place.

The Philadelphia Bulletin of Saturday tells the following account of the capture of a burglar well known in these parts: For some time past efforts have been made to rob a number of houses in the Fifth Police District. The attention of the police having been called to three suspicious individuals seen prowling about the neighborhood, a watch was kept upon them. Yesterday afternoon Lieutenant Flaherty, of the Fifth District, met a man named John Fox, alias Thomas Scott, at Ninth and Locust streets, and he arrested him upon suspicion of being concerned in the attempted robberies, and started up Locust street with his prisoner for the station-house. On reaching Tenth street, Scott pulled out a pistol and threatened to shoot the Lieutenant, but before he attempted this feat the Lieutenant drew his revolver and ordered him (Scott) to put his pistol in his pocket. Scott dropped his arm and ran with all his speed, still holding the pistol, down Briar Place towards Spruce street. The Lieutenant called to him to stop or he would shoot, and finally did fire at Scott three times. At the last fire Scott threw up his left arm as if hit, but he continued to run, reaching Spruce street, and then through a number of alleys, until he reached the rear of Dr. Smith's residence, in Spruce street, above Eighth. Here he dashed through the house into Spruce street again, closely followed by the Lieutenant. Scott, on reaching the street, jumped into a passenger car that was passing, but he was still followed by the Lieutenant, who arrested him, and, on finding that the prisoner had been shot, the ball entering immediately over the left shoulder blade, had him taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital. The wound was probed, but the doctor was unable to find the ball. The wound is considered a dangerous one. Scott is a desperate character and a professional burglar. On the 7th of February, in company with the following scoundrels: Geo. Ellis, alias George Wilson, now serving five years in Sing Sing for burglary; Watty Dunn, alias Watty Davis, now serving a sentence in the Eastern Penitentiary for a burglary committed in York county, Pennsylvania; William Forrester, alias Howard, alias Campbell, the supposed "Nathan" murderer; and Jimmy Elliott, now in the Eastern Penitentiary, serving a sentence of sixteen years for the murderous assault of Hugh Dougherty and Officer Murphy—he attempted to break into the banking-house of Rockafeller & Co., in Wilkesbarre, in the safe of which was $400,000. The attempt was discovered before it was accomplished, and the citizens pursued them into the neighboring woods, where, after a desperate fight, they were secured. On the 14th of June the party broke jail and escaped. He is also charged with breaking jail in Beaver county, where he knocked down the jailer before he effected his escape.

Thomas D. Patterson.

We take the following complimentary notice of a worthy citizen and candidate from yesterday's Leader:

Among the offices to be filled at the approaching election, there is none more important, perhaps, than that of county treasurer. The taxpayers come more directly in business contact with him than with almost any other county officer. It is a very responsible position, and one that requires a man of good qualifications to properly fill. But no matter how difficult or responsible the duties of an office may be, there are plenty of men always ready and anxious to fill the position, without waiting to consider whether they have the requisite business qualifications or the necessary experiences to properly perform the duties. In some cases the men who so offer themselves are what are called "clever fellows," and their friends would like to honor and assist them for past service. But when it comes to fill an office requiring the amount of practical business knowledge and experience necessary for a competent county treasurer, it becomes the duty of delegates to use great care and discrimination. Paying taxes is not generally considered a very pleasant or cheerful piece of business, but a competent and experienced man, with an obliging disposition, who thoroughly understands the details of the treasurer's office, can go far toward making the duty of paying taxes an agreeable one.

Mr. Thomas D. Patterson, of the Twentieth ward, is put forward by his friends as a very suitable man for the position. Mr. Patterson has been in the county treasurer's office for nine years, nearly seven years of that time in the position of chief clerk or bookkeeper, and has given such entire satisfaction to his various employers that he now has their hearty support for the nomination. It is claimed for Mr. Patterson that he is thoroughly acquainted with the routine of duties in the office and all the details necessary for a man to know in order to fill the office properly. He has uniformly shown an obliging disposition, and is ready at all times to put himself to personal inconvenience in order to facilitate matters and accommodate persons having business in the treasurer's office.

Although Mr. Patterson is rather a quiet, unpretending gentleman, and may lack the assurance to push his personal claims with as much assurance as some others, he has always been a strong and earnest advocate of the principles of the Republican party, and labored hard for its success. In the country districts Mr. Patterson is said to be very strong, many of the citizens throughout the different townships having been the recipients of his polite attentions. The delegates outside of the city will vote almost solid in his favor. Mr. Patterson's character for integrity and fidelity are above reproach, and he is claimed to be the strongest man in the party for the position. It is thought by many that he deserves promotion for his fidelity and trust, and that the ends of the party cannot be better accomplished than by nominating Mr. Patterson for the office of county treasurer.

Thirteen common cases before Mayor Callow yesterday morning.

James Diven has been prosecuted for misdemeanor, under the livery stable act, by P. McNamee, proprietor of a livery stable. James is charged with smashing a buggy belonging to Patrick, on Decoration Day.

Fifteen boys were arrested yesterday by the Allegheny police for bathing in the Allegheny river. The arrests were made at a point opposite Herr's Island, and the youthful offenders were escorted to the lock-up, and after being detained for a couple of hours they were released.

ONE MORE FOR THE SALOON KEEPERS.

They Achieve a Victory—The Court Has No Jurisdiction—A New Opinion—No Effect on Previous Cases.

The saloon keepers at last have met with a legal success, over which they are rejoicing. Saturday morning the case came up before Judge Collier, sitting in the Court of Quarter Sessions, with Judges Sterrett and Stowe, of Common Pleas. The Court Room was crowded in the lobby with saloon keepers and their friends, with a sprinkling of temperance men, while inside the bar the lawyers had gathered in full force.

Our readers will remember that almost two weeks ago a motion was made to quash the appeals to Court upon which two license cases had been decided. The grounds for the motion were that the Court had no jurisdiction in the matter after the application had been decided upon by the License Board.

The decision in the matter was withheld until Saturday morning when Judge Colleir decided.

THE OPINION.

The opinion first recapitulates the several acts and preliminary measures which resulted in the act of March, 1867, by which the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions were "relieved" of the granting of Licenses and the Commissioners of the County appointed the License Board with all the authority to grant or refuse licenses heretofore vested in the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions. The matter is then disposed of as follows:

"It is contended that this act takes away the right of appeal from the action of the County Commissioners in granting a license. Is this so? Do we as a court in deciding exceptions on an appeal grant or refuse the license upon which the appeal is taken? If we do, we do what the act says was taken from us and invested in the Commissioners; the words of the act are, 'with all the authority to grant or refuse licenses heretofore vested in the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions.' We clearly do not grant the licenses on appeal, because the license must be granted by the License Board before it can be appealed. Do we then refuse it by sustaining any of the exceptions? The act of 1856 giving an appeal is in these words "appeals from any grant of license by said Board may be taken to the Court of Quarter Sessions—provided that the exceptions thereto shall be in writing and sustained by oath or affirmation, and if exceptions to the granting of any license as aforesaid shall be sustained by said Court, the decision of said court shall state upon which of said exceptions, the said license may be refused, and shall be endorsed upon the petition and returned by the clerk of said court to the Board of Licensers."

We cannot see how we are to regard the words of this act other than as a plain direction (if we sustain an appeal) to state on which exceptions we refuse the license and to endorse the same on the petition to be returned to the Board of Licensers.

This view is strengthened by the directions in the preceding section of the act to the Commissioners as a Board of Licensers. This section reads thus: "And if an appeal from any license shall be sustained they shall return from the application already made such as may be more meritorious."

We are therefore of opinion that in sustaining exceptions on an appeal the act requires us to refuse the license, and as the act of 1867 vested all the authority we had as a Court of Quarter Sessions as to granting or refusing license in the County Commissioners, that we have no jurisdiction.

This view of the law renders it unnecessary to consider whether the right of appeal was merged in the general powers of the Court under the general license law of 1856, or whether an appeal would be from the Judges of the Court of Review, or whether the act of appeal was repealed by the last section of the act of 1867.

We are of the opinion that the appeals must be quashed.

Appeals quashed per curiam.

HOW IT WAS RECEIVED.

While the opinion was being read, the most perfect silence prevailed, so that, although Judge Collier read in a low tone, the reading was heard in the room. At the close the listeners in the lobby applauded heartily, but were checked, when the majority of them withdrew.

Mr. W. D. Moore then asked the Court what effect the decision would have on other cases which had been decided by appeal.

Judge Stowe—They stand as they were decided. This has nothing to do with them. This only decides the two cases brought up. It is, in fact, not a decision of a case, but the decision on the principle of the law.

Mr. Moore—I rather think it should decide all the cases. The decision certainly is that the Court has no jurisdiction in these matters. Does not that then apply to all the cases decided by appeal, and ought not those parties where applications have been refused under an appeal to Court, now have the right to get their licenses which were granted by the License Board, and afterward revoked by the Court.

Judge Collier—We have nothing to do with any former cases. They were decided and the question of jurisdiction was not raised. We have only decided the principles in these two cases because that point was raised.

Mr. Moore—Well, I must respectfully differ with Your Honor, but if you say, will have to submit.

The Court then resumed ordinary business.

EXIT NEELY.

A Vacancy in the License Board—The Matter Before Court—No Action Yet.

The rumors which prevailed in relation to the proposed retiracy of one, at least, of the County Commissioners, were verified Saturday morning by the resignation of one of the official trio, around whom so much interest recently has gathered. It was expected that the resignation would be brought up in open Court, which expectation is sufficiently explanatory of the unusual throng of lawyers citizens, saloon keepers, temperance men and politicians hovering around the Court House at an early hour Saturday morning.

The attendants were at a loss for a time which court room to centre upon, but finally as Judge Stowe appeared in the rotunda and disappeared into the Common Pleas followed by Judge Sterrett in a short time, and at a quarter past ten by Judge Collier, the crowd made that the rendezvous. In this, however, they were disappointed. Judge Collier after reading the opinion in the appealed cases disappeared and the ordinary business of Court was taken up.

A few of the more observant however had noticed a mysterious slip of paper passing from one to the other of the Judges and being carefully read, after which it was taken possession of by Judge Collier, as he went out. Those who had observed this proceeding followed His Honor to the Criminal Court Room, and thus about a dozen spectators, with perhaps half as many lawyers, had the privilege of hearing Gen. Pearson, District Attorney, read in open Court the paper containing the following announcement:

MT. WASHINGTON, June 3, 1871.

To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions:

I hereby respectfully tender to the proper authorities my resignation as Commissioner of Allegheny county. JONATHAN NEELEY.

After the reading, Gen. Pearson stated the resignation had been presented in the Common Pleas but not publicly announced.

Judge Collier—I have not particularly examined the law in this matter, to see who has the power to receive the resignation and appoint a Commissioner to fill the vacancy. But I'll do so another day

Mr. Lucas—If the Court please, I have the law here, which I'll read.

The gentleman then read from Purdon's Digest a section which provides that in case of a vacancy in the Board of County Commissioners, the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions, with the remaining Commissioners, had the power to appoint a Commissioner to act until the next regular election.

Judge Collier said he would attend to it, and the resignation was accordingly filed.

So the case of the Commissioner gets more interesting. The resignation, we understand, will have no effect upon the prosecution now pending against Mr. Neely. Mr. Dilworth, who made the information, reiterates his determination to "push things," and have the whole matter investigated.

The informations against Neely and McGee will go before the Grand Jury probably to-day, and if true bills are found, the cases will be disposed of during the week.

American Protestant Association.

Iron City Lodge, No. 36, held a special meeting on Saturday evening. The Lodge was opened, and James Alcorn, W. G. Master of State, was introduced, and delivered a spirited and animated address on the origin and principles of the Order—and the great necessity for its existence under the present state of affairs in our country—and said, that while the enemies of our public school system were using every means in their power to destroy that system, the American Protestant Association being the only effective organization in the country to preserve the liberties of our country, the principles of free schools, free speech, free press, and a free and open Bible, it ought to defend these principles in earnest. He gave a glowing account of the prosperity of the Order throughout the State. Ten new Lodges were organized during his term of office, composed of men of good morals and religious principles; and some of the new Lodges are located in districts where their services will be of unmeasurable advantage in preserving the principles of our free Repuclican institutions. He closed by urging the members to discard cavil and disaffection, and adhere strictly to the principles of the Order, and maintain civil and religious liberty against all opposition.

Rev. Wm. H. Hunter was next introduced and making a few introductory remarks, among other things, said that the purposes of the Order of the American Protestant Association was to promote religion, benevolence, loyalty and charity, and therefore should have the sympathy of all the good and virtuous. The speaker urged the Society to go on in their good work, and teach men to venerate their Maker, believe in their Saviour—trust their Mediator—accept of the teaching of the Bible in all its great truths, to continue in their labor of love and charity, to lift from his low estate the degraded man—aid the sick, assist the widow and provide for the orphan, co-operate with the church of Christ in the subjugation of this wicked world to the worship of the living and true God; and closed by declaring that the recollection of such acts would never bring confusion to the face nor sorrow to the heart.

The W. G. Master, in answer to a question asked by several representatives, announced that the W. G. Lodge would convene in the Hall of the Iron City Lodge, on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

The Lodge then adjourned.

EDITORS GAZETTE: In accordance with your request I report the following results of two days' burning of the Bituminous Coal Furnace, constructed at the coal works of Chas. H. Armstrong, Liberty street, between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth street.

The boiler used was a common straight backed locomotive, covered with Salmander cement, by Childs & Co., Wood street.

Average pressure per square inch, 61 lbs. Average temperature of freed water, 91 degrees. Average temperature in boiler, 291 degrees. Average evaporation of water per hour, 687.74 lbs. Pounds of water evaporated per pound of coal, 8.73 lbs. Pounds of water evaporated per pound of fuel, including wood for kindling and getting up steam to 60 lbs., with water in boiler at 120 degrees, 9.9 lbs. Amount of ashes, clinkers and fine coal which passed the grate, 12 per cent.

These results were obtained, as you are aware, from a crude experimental furnace constructed to prove the practicability of producing perfect combustion of the waste slack coal and thereby preventing smoke.

Experience and a perfectly constructed furnace will give still better results.

CHRISTIAN WORK.

Young Men's Christian Association—Monthly Meeting—Reports of Committees—Interesting and Eloquent Address by the Delegates to the National Convention held at Washington, etc.

The Young Men's Christian Association held their regular monthly meeting Saturday evening in their beautiful hall corner of Penn and Sixth streets, at a quarter to eight o'clock. As usual the attendance was large and the exercises of absorbing interest. President H. K. Porter occupied the chair, with T. D. Logan acting as Secretary. The choir of the First Presbyterian church was in attendance and discoursed sweet music at intervals. This is one of the finest church choirs in the city, and their efforts on this occasion was highly appreciated.

The exercises were introduced with a voluntary "Abide with me," which was performed with great feeling and beauty. After reading of the first chapter of James by the President the opening prayer was offered by W. B. McCord.

After an Anthem by the choir the Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were unanimously approved.

Reports of Committees were then in order.

Mr. Jennings, Secretary of the Board of Directors, reported that steps were being taken to refit the rooms of the Association.

A member reported that the attendance at the noon-day meeting was encouraging, and the exercises of great interest.

Mr. Moore reported on behalf of the Committee of Membership and presented the names of twenty-nine new members.

Mr. McCord reported that the meetings at the Soldiers' Home were regularly carried on and gave promise of great results.

Mr. T. D. Logan reported on behalf of Committee on New Associations. Several were visited and all are in a healthy condition.

At the close of the above reports the choir again delighted the audience by singing an anthem entitled "To thy Temple I repair."

Major Wm. Frew was then introduced and proceeded to report on behalf of the Pittsburgh Delegation to the National Convention at Washington, D. C.

He commenced by remarking that the convention lately held at Washington was the most important one ever held in this country. Since the great Rebellion delegates from all parts of the land have never met before. But at this convention they were met by delegates from North and South, East and West. And here for the first time there was no distinction made in race or color. This was the first convention ever assembled at the capital of the nation, and the success obtained promised a bright future. The Spirit of God was poured out upon the meetings, and many were led to God. One of the most encouraging phases of the convention was that all members of the Government were greatly interested. The day previous to the meeting President Grant gave leave of absence to all young men in government employment to attend the meetings. President Grant himself was present at most of the sessions and cheered us by his presence and words. He made the largest speech he has ever been known to make. Many of the greatest men of our country were present as delegates. It was announced on the first day of the Convention that it was the birthday of Queen Victoria, upon which we arose unanimously and sung "God Save the Queen." And right after, to counteract the effect we sung "America." Overflowing meetings were held in all the churches, and open air meetings at almost every street corner. The speaker concluded by saying that the good results would not be confined to Washington, but would spread over the whole land.

Rev. E. T. Garette was the next speaker. He portrayed in vivid language the interview with President Grant at the White House. Above 2,000 Christian men, from all parts of the country, filed past the "Soldier-President," shaking hands and saying with hearts swelling with sympathy, and tear-dimmed eyes, "God bless you, President Grant." One of the most gratifying phases of these meetings was that there was an entire absence of sectional feeling. Sects and parties were merged in Jesus Christ. It was the most glorious set of meetings I have ever attended. God's Spirit was poured out and many were led to Christ.

Rev. Mr. Boyle followed. About these meetings the half has not been told. The scene which I looked upon in Lincoln Hall was beyond description. The hospitality of the citizens of Washington City was without precedent. He wished the citizens of Pittsburgh could visit the Young Men's Christian Association building of Washington and see its grandeur. He believed it would soon lead them to follow their example and erect one for Pittsburgh. The speaker referred to the presence of the "Red Men" at the Convention and the interesting scenes connected therewith. He rejoiced to see the British and American flags blended together and the spirit of love manifested by the delegates from these two great nations, and from this he augured well for a future of blessed peace between these mighty nations.

The choir then sung the beautiful hymn—

"Nearer my God to Thee,"

after which, some miscellaneous business having been transacted, the meeting was dismissed after singing the long metre Doxology.

Bible Meeting.

The first of a series of meetings that it is intended to hold in different parts of the county in behalf of the Bible cause, was held last evening in the beautiful edifice of the Presbyterian church, on Twentieth street, Birmingham, of which the Rev. Mr. Davies is pastor.

David Robinson, Esq., President of the Young Men's Bible Society of Allegheny county, presided. After a voluntary by the choir, the Rev. W. W. Eels, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Bible Society for the Western District, read the 19th Psalm and led in prayer, when the congregation united in singing. The Chairman then announced the Rev. Mr. Davies as the first speaker, who proceeded to deliver an excellent address, giving a short account of the inception and progress of Bible Societies, and then proceeded to adduce reasons which should induce us to give more earnest attention and effort to circulate the precious Word of God.

The remarks of the Reverend gentleman were listened to with marked attention. After singing one verse of the hymn "Awake my soul in joyful lays" the Rev. Mr. Eels made an earnest and stirring appeal in behalf of the great work of placing the Bible in the hands of every person.

The Rev. Mr. Westfall, of the Methodist church, was then introduced, and eloquently urged every one to engage earnestly in the loving work of placing the Bible within the reach of all.

The Chairman then introduced Mr. David Clarke, agent of Young Men's Bible Society, who presented some statistics of the Bible work.

After singing the meeting was dismissed with prayer and the benediction by Rev. Westfall. Altogether, the meeting was a success, and will, we doubt not, be followed by good results.

A Country Pic Nic.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—A pic nic was given near Clinton, on Thursday, 25th inst. It wasn't as good as it might have been owing to the fact that the admission to the platform or dancing floor was put at such a high rate that many declined to indulge in "the poetry of motion" and "trip the light fantastic toe." The ladies were there in their might, arrayed in their new spring clothes, and certainly they never looked sweeter nor lovelier. A shade of sadness, however, rested on the faces of some of the fair ones on account of their not being asked as frequently as they might have been to "tread the mazes." This, however, as we hinted before, wasn't because the ladies didn't look lovely or weren't good dancers—but "tripping" was high and many of the "bloods" didn't care to invest.

Perhaps the ladies would clinch their hands, shut their teeth and mutter under their breath, "stingy," "mean," &c., but who can blame them?

The young men of Clinton and vicinity are proverbial for their liberality and large heartedness, and they doubtless would have "threaded" more extensively if they hadn't believed that the managers were trying to make too much money. The pic nic was held in a beautiful grove on the farm of Mr. Henry Weaver. Yours, &c., BOULEVARD.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that there is to be another sale of building lots at Birmingham Station, to-day.

Buyers at the two previous sales are highly pleased with their bargains.

These lots are laid out 25 feet front by 125 to 250 deep, but when put up at auction, one is sold with the privilege of one or more adjoining, which relieves a buyer from fear of competition, when he wants more than one lot.

So far buyers have taken from two to eleven lots.

The terms are liberal. The prices are low, the location is unsurpassed. The lots are at the Station, the air is pure, the view is magnificent.

Ten trains every day each way,—only five miles from Federal street station, and within three hundred yards of the New Brighton Turnpike.

Be at the sale Monday next.

The Auctioneer, Mr. Leggate, will furnish you with transportation by the 2 o'clock P. M. train from Allegheny.

In this he succeeded; but as he was chuckling over his exploit he was surprised by the appearance of his victim reinforced by a strong party of friends, who all supposed Mr. Tucker to be a burgler of the most atrocious character. It was not until he had been chased nearly a mile, had forty shots fired at him from revolvers, and been overtaken and fearfully beaten, that Mr. Tucker found an opportunity to explain the joke.

Dr. Thorn attended to Catlin's injury, which is simply a flesh wound.

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

SEVERAL enthusiastic Atlanta belles were not happy at the reception of ex-President Davis on Saturday until they kissed the Confederate chief "right out in the meetin'." Mr. Davis stood this novel attack like a veteran campaigner, and in fact, appeared to like it.

LAST Thursday night the office of the Southern Express Company at Atlanta was entered and robbed of a large amount of money. The thief entered by a window in the rear of the building, went to the room where the man in charge was sleeping, and, having taken the key out of his pants pocket, opened the safe and abstracted $15,000. Efforts are being made to capture the thief.

LAST Monday night about twenty men visited the jail, in Owensborro, Ky., for the purpose, as it is supposed, of lynching one Cain, who is in durance vile there, on a charge of murder. A warm reception was given them by the jailer and his assistants, during which about thirty shots were fired, none of which, however, as far as was known, took effect. The party finally retired without accomplishing their object.

EARLY last Sunday morning, while a man named Armstrong, said to be from Barnwell county, South Carolina, was crossing the city bridge at Augusta, in which city he has been residing for a few weeks, two or three men sprang upon him and beat him severely with their fists. The ground of the assault is supposed to have arisen from the fact that, soon after President Davis' stay in this city, Armstrong denounced him in unmeasured terms, and made the additional remark that "Blodgett and the negroes were the only decent people in Augusta."

LAST Saturday night the deputy sheriff and town marshal of Warrenton, Ga., attempted to make the arrest of a notoriously bad negro named Carl, who was creating a row on the outskirts of the town. The negro defied the marshal, and refused to cease his disturbance, when the officer caught hold of him, and the negro showing fight, the marshal struck him. With a heavy bludgeon the negro made for the marshal, when the latter drew his pistol and fired, the ball taking effect in the left side, immediately below the ribs, producing what is thought will prove a mortal wound.

A LARGE and respectable meeting of the people of Florence, South Carolina, met on the 23d ult to publicly denounce certain notices received in that place by county officers and others, purporting to come from the Kuklux. One of the resolutions adopted read as follows: "That whether these are genuine orders of the K. K. K., or the work of political wire-pullers, done to keep up excitement for political purposes, or not, we condemn them, and shall use every effort, as good citizens, to assist the proper officers in maintaining the peace and rights of our citizens under these or any other unlawful circumstances."

The St. Louis Republican says: "Mr. William Bailey, President of the Texas railroad, went to the office of Justice Michel on Tuesday in consequence of some wrong, real or imagined, which had been done a friend of his by the serving of a landlord's writ of restitution. He entred the office and said to Mr. Michel: 'Where is the man that executed that writ, that man perjured himself.' Mr. Bierman, the deputy constable referred to, immediately got up and directed a vigorous blow at the railroad President's head, which sent him sprawling. The blow was repeated and Mr. Bailey drew a revolver. Mr. Bierman then pulled out his and dared him to shoot. The justice then interfered and said that he would arrest both parties. The matter dropped.

Protestant Sisters.

The Chicago Tribune has the following: Bishop Littlejohn, of the Diocese of Long Island, is in favor of the establishment of sisterhoods in the Episcopal Church "for the education of the young, the relief of the sick and destitute, and the reformation of the vicious." At the Diocesan Convention, held a short time since, he urged this project with much favor, claiming that all the reasons which had been urged against such a beneficent agency had been successfully met, and all the unfavorable prejudices ought to have been lived down. He said:

"There are now three sisterhoods in New York, two in Maryland, one in Massachusetts, and a training house in Philadelphia for mission women and hospital nurses. In the mother Church in England it is believed that not less than thirty-five communities of Christian women are now in more or less successful operation, having secured by their acknowledged efficiency not only the sanction but the active direction and co-operation of the highest ecclesiastical authorities. To these evidences of interest and growth in this movement there remain to be added the vast work now doing all over the continent of Europe by the nearly one thousand deaconesses, educated and trained at the Raisenworth Institution, near Dusseldorf, or at institutions planted by its influence."

In response to the recommendation of the Bishop, which was supported by Rev. Drs. Hall, Padlock, Schenck, and others, the subject was referred to a select committee of inquiry to report fully to the next convention. It is well know that the order of Protestant deaconesses—founded, if we recollect aright, by Father Passavant, and having their centre of operations near Pittsburgh—have been instrumental in much beneficence, especially in the care of the destitute sick, for whom they carry on several hospitals in various parts of the country. The labors of the sisterhoods of the Roman Catholic Church in the fields pointed out by Bishop Littlejohn are too well known and universally recognized to need mention as examples.

Koonbie Customs.

The Koonbies of Central India, that class of the native population engaged in the cultivation of cotton, have a method of keeping the profits of their industry, which would be open to objection for insecurity in the Fourth ward of this city. The rupees that are paid them for their crop they convert into gold, which they wear upon their arms in the form of bangles or rude bracelets. In a propitious season the bangle is very solid and when unusually high prices have been obtained for their cotton, a second bracelet adorns the dusky wrist of the fortunate Koonbie. An untoward circumstance such as the loss of an ox by a sudden tiger raid from the jungle, or a blighting frost in the cotton fields, would be indicated by the disappearances of a bangle, or the sad diminution in its thickness and weight. This mode of advertising a fortune has its convenience for the Koonbie ladies, who may see at a glance the resources of the admirers, but in the lands of civilization it would be attended with too frequent and violate transfer of property from hand to hand.—*N.Y. THE Portland Oregonian tells in the most placid, matter-of-fact way that a man picked up a nugget of gold which weighed four pounds, in Baker county last week. It seems to us that there would be some excitement in these parts if any one made a regular business of going about picking up four pound nuggets like that.

A SUDDEN gust of wind, a day or two ago, caused a flag, on a building in Albany, to become entangled in some ornamental iron work around the roof, and in flapping back again it tore away about twenty-five pounds of the iron, and flung it through a window of the house opposite with sufficient force to penetrate through the carpet and floor to the ceiling of the room below.

WHEN Mr. Greeley and the rest of them succeed in abolishing capital punishment we hope they will make at least one exception in favor of the man who gets up the hoaxes about news in one way or the other concerning the lost steamer City of Boston. When that man is discovered he ought to be taken to the torture chamber of the Inquisition and after having all the instruments tried on him he might be hung.

THE Ravenna (Ohio) Democrat puts on record the following new style of making butter: "A few days since, Mrs. Mary M. Hughes put about a quart of cream in a cloth bag, and buried it about two feet deep in the earth, where it remained three days, when she disinterred it, and found it transformed into pure, sweet, yellow butter, with not one drop of buttermilk to be seen. Mrs. Hughes thinks that cream will yield sbout one-third more butter by that process than by the old-fashioned way of churning.

PRINCE BISMARCK, it is reported, is to be rewarded for his services to Germany in an extremely liberal spirit. The Emperor William, it is stated, desires to purchase and present to Bismarck the handsome and valuable estate of Krotoschin, in Posen, now owned by the Prince of Thurn and Taxis, whose family, prior to 1864, under the old condition of public affairs, held the monopoly of the Postoffice in Germany. This estate yields an annual income of $96,000 to the present owners, who have been offered $1,920,000 for the property.

At Jonesville, Wisconsin, on Friday morning, about 9 o'clock, just as the court opened, a swallow flew into one of the open windows of the Court House, and immediately commenced to circle around the room near the ceiling, and kept flying during the entire day, not stopping once. Some of those present estimated that the bird travelled 200 miles while in the court room. During the day, on two occasions, one of its companions flew in and seemed to urge it to leave, but it wouldn't budge.

THE editor of the Atlanta Constitution says he has in his office one of the most splendid specimens of cellular quartz ever fonnd in any part of the world, taken from a fissure vein, near Gainesville, traversing the elastic or flexible sandstone or matrix of the diamond. It is so highly carbonized that it will become an important article of trade, as a polisher of gems and articles of hardware, cutlery, etc. The quantity is inexhaustible. The specimen came from the plantation of G. W. Merck. Near it two diamonds have been picked up in the gold washings.

There is a novel law-suit in Chenango county, N. Y., just at present, brought by Miss Evans against Curtis Cooper, of Guilford, on a contract made fifteen years ago. The Fulton Times gives the particulars in these words: "Mr. Cooper, agreed to give Miss Evans one ewe lamb and its increase until she was twenty-one years of age, in consideration of a gold watch key. The suit was brought before Justice Newell, to recover the sheep or it's equivalent. The evidence showed that the increase was to be in ewe lambs, and that the natural increase of a flock of sheep would double every year. According to this estimate Miss Susie would have at the end of fifteen years 16,064 ewe lambs, which at $4 a head, would amount to $64,256. Justice Newell heard the evidence, and, like a wise man, reserved his judgement.

Changed His Position.

The New Haven correspondent of the New York Globe gives the following: "There was a good story current last term, which in some way leaked out beyond the coufines of faculty reservation, but has never yet seen light in print. It happens that one of our city Democratic politicians (who was said last winter to hanker after the Democratic nomination for Congress) had a son a member of the Freshman class in Yale. The initial of the young man's surname is the same as that of the colored student Bouchet, and the two were consequently seated near each other in recitation. Mr. B. Senior, early in the first term, wrote to one of the Professors, desiring him, as a personal favor, to change his boy's seat, as it was, for many reasons, distasteful to sit so near a negro. The Professor wrote back that at present the students were ranged in alphabetical order, and it was not in his power to grant the favor, but 'next term the desired change will be brought about, for, scholarship then being the criterion, Mr. Bouchet will be in the first division and your son in the fourth.'"

Materializing Tender Relations.

Thanks to the spread of female education and the rights of the dear sex generally, the Mind promises to become the standard of the Woman also. Hereafter lovers must address their pretty speeches to the brain as well as to the eyes of their sweethearts. There is Mr. Tennyson, for instance, who has erred grievously in materializing our relations with women. Let him remodel his purely passionate poetry, beginning with that ignoble justification of carnality, "Maud:"

Come into the study, Maud,
For the forenoon's almost flown;
Come into the study, Maud,
And we'll have a good cram alone.
There's a Gazetteer of places abroad,
And many a vol. of Bohn.

There's a Buckle, all bound in mauve,
And a Burton's Anatomee,
And an Analytical Programme by Grove—
George Grove, of the Crystal P.;
And Mangnall and Maunder and many a cove
To be studied by you and me.

MR. FROUDE, the English historian, eloquently says, alluding to the Darwinian theory of the descent of man: "It may be true—I, for one, care not if it be—that the descent of our mortal bodies may be traced through an ascending series to some glutinous jelly, formed on the rocks of the primeval ocean. It is nothing to me how the Maker of me has been pleased to construct the organized substance which I call my body. It is mine, not me. The intellectual spirit, being an essence, we believe to be an imperishable something engendered in us from a higher source."
